NOTES

Much attention has been given to Henry Corbin of Virginia and his family. In comparison, John Corbin has seemed like an orphan step-child. But even a small amount of research on John and his family leads to the conclusion that the lack of knowledge is directly related to a lack of records. Researchers have spent years trying to find a connection between Henry and John, but without success.

After several years of searching, I was able to trace my roots to David Corbin of Hampshire County, (West) Virginia. And then I found that even less was known of David than of others of John's family. In fact, no proof has been found that this was David, the son of John Corbin II, although most genealogists think that he was.

There are a number of competent persons working on John's family who are better qualified than I am, and have better access to records, so I have limited my research to David and his descendants. Over the years, I have gathered some material pertaining to John Corbin, so I have included it to provide historical background. I can't guarantee that all of the items refer to our ancestors.

There are uncertainties connected with the family because of the scarcity of records. Many county records were lost during the Civil War. There is a sign in front of the Hampshire County Courthouse which says that the town of Romney changed hands 56 times during the conflict. I was told that the two armies were equally guilty of destroying the records.

Material on later generations, furnished by family members, has not been verified. Female lines have been given when readily available, but no special effort has been made to trace them, as each name would involve another complete research project.

DAVID CORBIN¹; d April, 1828, Hampshire County, (West) Virginia; (Hampshire Co. Court records; Envelope 46) m Bathsheba _____. Bathsheba probably died between 11 August, 1824, when David's will was written, and 20 March, 1826, when David alone signed a deed. They may both have been buried on their farm.

1887, 12 March; Hampshire Co. DB 64:435: John Corbin and wife Harriett Ann his wife to Sarah Sheetz ... $400 right to a certain tract except one-quarter acre grave yard west side of Little Capon about one mile below Frenchburg.....

Bathsheba may have been the daughter of John and Margaret Humphrey of Culpeper County, Virginia. John's will (written 16 Nov, 1766; probated 21 May, 1767; Will Book A:444; Culpeper) mentions daughter Bathsheba, and a John Corbin was appraiser. Bathsheba Humphrey was apparently unmarried in 1766, and Humphrey Corbin, son of David, was born in 1768, so if David married the daughter of John, it was about 1767.

David was in Hampshire County at least by 11 August, 1772, when he bought land there. He was involved in numerous land transactions. The deeds were signed with a mark, indicating that David couldn't read or write. But apparently he could add and subtract; the land he owned at various times amounted to over 3,600 acres. (See Page 130 for list)

David appeared in the Hampshire County tax lists of 1782 and 1784. His household consisted of six white persons in both years. (For the 1787 tax list, see page 132.)

Then I gave and bequeath to my son Humphrey Corbin the Tract of land

whereon he now resides contaging one hundred forty Acres to have and to hold For Ever, Then I gave and bequeath to my Son Isaiah Corbin The tract of land where on he now resides Lying and being in the county of Hampshire and State of Virginia Situate on the East Side of Little cacapon and adjoining the Land of Robt French and others to have and to hold for Ever I also gave and bequeath to my Son Isaiah Corbin one half part of a tract of Land Lying in the said county of Hampshire on the east Side of the South Fork of Little Cacapon Near the Stray Lick run the Whole tract containing three hundred and Eight Acres to have and to hold for Ever. Then I gave and bequeath to my Daughter Elizabeth Powelson nineteen acres of Land Situate in the said county of Hampshire and adjoining the tract Above bequeathed to my Son Humphrey Corbin to be Disposed of as he may think proper, and whereas I have heretofore given to my Son Daniel Corbin in his Life time a tract of Land Lying and being in the County of Hampshire which tract the S^d Dan^l Corbin Sold for and in consideration of the Sum of Twenty five pounds Also many other articles not necessary here to Enumerate, Therefore I consider these Donations an Equal Portien with any of my children. Further it is my will that one hundred acres of Land which I hold in this County of hampshire and adjoining the lands of the heirs of W^m M. Powell be sold for the purpose of paying my just Debts Also the other half Part of the tract bequeathed to my Son Isaiah Corbin Lying on the East side of the south Fork of Little cacapon near the Stray Lick run I do will be sold for the purpose of paying my just Debts and moreover two acres of Land adjoining Robt French and Wilson and immediately on the main road from Winchester to Romney be Disposed of for the purpose above mentioned. Then I moreover gave and bequeath to my wife Barthsheba Corbin one other tract of land adjoining the Farm whereon I now reside and others containing one hundred and Twenty five acres to have and to hold During her Life and at her Death to be Equally Divided between my two Daughters Alecy and Mildred to be Disposed of as they may think proper and moreover I Do will that provided the Land I have Left to be sold Should not be Sufficient to pay my Debts it is my wish that the Defecency be made up out of the Stock and household furniture which I have Bequeathed to my wife and two Daughters- and Lastly I Do appoint John Arnold Executer to this my Last will and testimuet Revoking all others whatsoever In witness whereof I have hereunto Set my hand and Seal this 11th Day of August in the year of our Lord 1824.

An auction of the personal property was held sometime before 1 April, 1829. The family Bible was purchased for $1.42, by Thornton Powell. (Sale bill; Will Book 9:212)

These lists indicate that David would have been considered well-to-do by his contemporaries, and that he lived quite comfortably for his time. He sat on Windsor chairs, ate from pewter plates, and drank from a pewter tankard. The poorer people of that era used tin or wooden tableware. David liked a little nip now and then as shown by the cider mill and still. Also sold were some wine barrels and "cags". David used snuff, and owned a razor. Bathsheba probably used the loom and other spinning and weaving equipment. A bill was paid for "brandy at sale". The estate wasn't settled until December, 1838. (Will Book 11:255-259)

Children of David Corbin:

2. i. Humphrey Corbin²; b 1768
3. ii. Daniel Corbin; b ca 1770
- iii. Elizabeth Corbin; b perhaps 1770s, m a Powelson. Elizabeth may have died before 1834-35, as she didn't sign papers with other heirs of David. An Elizabeth Powelson, age 72, was living in Hampshire County in 1850; she is recorded in the household of Abraham and Rebecca Algiers. Daniel had a daughter, Elizabeth, who married Cornelius Powelson, but if the age given was correct, the recorded Elizabeth was too old to be Daniel's daughter.
4. iv. Isaiah Corbin; b ca 1777
5. v. Alice Corbin; b perhaps 1780s
6. vi. Mildred Corbin; b ca 1791

There is a problem with Amelia. David's will mentions daughters Elizabeth, Alecy and Mildred. In 1850, Milly Corbin, age 56, was living with Alice Corbin and her son Joseph. In 1851, Amelia left property to "my dear sister Alsy". There is no record of where or when Amelia obtained the property. Another Milly Corbin appeared in the 1850 census of Hampshire County:

- 90-90 Williams, Jacob; age 56
- Ann; age 52
- Margaret; age 9
- White, Nancy; age 20
- Corbin, Milly; age 59

There are several possibilities here:

1. Amelia is the Mildred of David's will. The chief argument against this is that Mildred is said to be the mother of George Washington Corbin, and there is no evidence connecting him with Amelia.
A passage from Amelia's will says: "..... I also give and devise to my dear Sister Alsy all my interest in a Suit, in court, Instituted against John Arnold, Executor" . Executor of what? Does this go back to the estate of David Corbin? The Hampshire County Minute Book for 1847-48 refers to a suit, Corbin vs. Arnold, but I haven't been able to locate the court records to see who was involved, or the purpose of the action.
2. David was so incensed with daughter Amelia that he wouldn't mention her name, even in his will. Perhaps he had given land to Amelia at some earlier time. But it seems strange that David could have had two daughters called "Milly". Humphrey Corbin named a daughter Amelia.
3. Amelia was a sister-in-law, a sister of Alecy's husband, David Corbin. That would be compatible with the will naming "my nephew, Joseph Corbin". But several Hampshire County deeds referred to Amelia as a sister of Alcey. Another deed was signed by Milly Corbin as an heir of David Corbin; I don't know which Milly.

Last Will and Testament of Umphrey Corben was produced to the Coshocton County, Ohio, Court of Common Pleas, August term, 1837:

I, Umphrey Corben of the township of Franklin, County of Coshocton and State of Ohio, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say, First, It is my will that my funeral expences and all my just debts be fully paid.

Second, I give devise & bequeath unto my beloved wife Allice Corben the third part of the plantation where on I now reside during her natural life, and also my bay horse (Ned) together with the one third part of my personal property.

Third I give and devise to my three sons, Thomas Corben, Joseph Corben, and Benjamin Corben, and my two daughters Amelia Corben & Mary Corben, the plantation whereon I now reside, and to their heirs and assigns forever, subject to the above divise.

Fourth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth Cremer wife of Henry Cremer the sum of Twenty Dollars, to be paid to her by Thomas Corben, Joseph Corben, Benjamin Corben, Amelia Corben and Mary Corben, in consequences of the land I have devised to them.

Fifth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Bersheba Steerman, wife of Thomas Steerman, the sum of Ten Dollars.

Sixth, I give and bequeath to my daughter Magdalene Moore wife of James Moore the sum of one dollar.

Seventh, I give and bequeath to my son Daniel Corben the sum of five Dollars.

Eighth, I give and bequeath to my son John Corben the money that my young sorrell mare is sold for at the sale of my property.

Ninth, the remainder of my personal estate I give and bequeath to my three sons, Thomas Corben, Joseph Corben, Benjamin Corben, and to my two daughters, Amelia Corben & Mary Corben, to be equally divided among them, they paying the above Legatees, to be paid within two years after my decease. And lastly, I hereby constitute and appoint my two sons Thomas Corben and Benjamin Corben to be the executors of this my last will and testament, revoking and annulling all former wills by me made and rattifying And confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament - In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 30th day of May AD 1837.

Catharine Everhart Corbin was a member of the Evans Creek Lutheran Church, Tuscarawas County, Ohio. It is very near the Coshocton County line. Church records show Catharine a communicant member in 1838. Joseph was confirmed as a member in 1846.

Joseph has not been located in the 1840 census. Later census schedules state that his son David was born in Indiana in 1841. In 1850, they were in Adams Township, Coshocton County, Ohio.

In 1855, Joseph and Catharine moved to Adair County, Missouri. Joseph bought land in 1859, and appears there in the 1860 census. Family tradition says that he ran a saw mill. Joseph and Catharine sold land 10 April, 1865, and that is the last record found for him.

- 14 Nov, 1859; Adair Co DB H:514: Joseph from Hugh Mikel; $48080 acres.....

- 25 June, 1888; Harrison Co DB 59:169: Catharine Corbin to L. C. Corbin...

There is a picture of Catharine and her children, Conaway and Margaret; they were all cross-eyed. Catharine may be the source of the amblyopia that still plagues the family.

Children of Joseph Corbin:

- i. Sarah Corbin⁴; b ca 1831, Oh. Sarah probably married 21 April, 1861, Adair County, Mo, Samuel Cochran, but the marriage record has been damaged, and just says Samu_____. In 1846, Sarah was confirmed in the Evans Creek Lutheran Church, Tuscarawas Co, Ohio.
 - 1863; Adair Co, Mo; Bk. B:440: Sarah Cochran sued for divorce. The judge dismissed the case, but Samuel had to pay $15 for Sarah's lawyer.
 - 15 April, 1869, in Adair County, Sarah Cochran signed a paper attesting to the births of two children of Benjamin Corbin, her brother.

Conaway left his farm to John in exchange for John's care during Conaway's last days. A family story says that Conaway adopted a boy named Dexter Taylor, and called him Tom Corbin, but no record of such a person has been found.

10. BENJAMIN CORBIN³; (Humphrey², David¹) b ca 1810, Va; d after 1880; probably Adair Co, Mo; m 24 Apr, 1834, Coshocton Co, Oh, Mary (Polly) Everhart, b ca 1815, Oh; dau of David Everhart and Sarah Enoch. Mary was a sister of Joseph Corbin's wife, Catharine Everhart.

Benjamin owned land in Franklin and Adams Townships, Coshocton County, Ohio. He appeared there in the 1840 and 1850 census schedules. Benjamin then moved to Adair County, Missouri, presumably at the same time as his brother Joseph. He was there in 1860, 1870 and 1880. Benjamin bought land in Adair County in 1857, but I was unable to trace the disposition of that land. There is no probate record.

Children of Benjamin Corbin: (the following children were living in his household in 1850; I don't know what happened to them.)

About 1851, Benjamin, Martha and part of their family moved to Coshocton County, Ohio. Probably in 1856, they went to Wayne County, Iowa, where some of their family lived.

Children of Benjamin Corbin:

- i. Susan Corbin⁴; b perhaps ca 1819-1820 (f Rec)
- ii. David Corbin; b ca 1823, Va. Family sources say that David married Rebecca A. Greathouse, dau of Moses, but the 1850 census has two listings for David Corbin:

David and Rebecca (Greathouse) Corbin had a daughter, Perlina, born July, 1852. In 1900, David was living in Harrison County, Va, with daughter Perlina and her husband, Albert Moon (or Moore).

Family tradition states that David served in the Army of the Potomoc during the Civil War. The only record found is in the index to Civil War records:

22. ASHFORD CORBIN³; (Mildred², David¹); b ca 1824, probably Hampshire Co, (W) Va; d 28 Feb, 1890, Piedmont, Mineral County, W Va; (pension file) m 20 June, 1855, Allegany Co, Maryland, (VR) Ellen E. Furr (Himes?) (record says Ellen E. Furry); b 7 Aug, perhaps 1837, Va; d after 1900; dau of Nimrod and Susan Furr. Ellen m (2) 28 Mar, 1890, Piedmont, Mineral Co, W VA, Silas Trenter; b ca 1858. In 1900 Silas, Ellen, and some of her children were living in Westernport, Allegany Co, Maryland.

There is no proof that Ashford was a son of Mildred. Since no other identification for him has been found, I am guessing that the business records found for him and George Washington Corbin (see GWC; # 23) indicate that they were brothers. It is possible that they were half-brothers, both being sons of a Joseph Corbin. In that case, Ashford would be a step-son of Mildred, and not a descendant of David¹.

The records concerning these people are confusing. In one affidavit, Ellen said that she was Ellen Furr when she married Ashford. In another, she stated that she was Ellen Himes. Was Ashford her second husband? She would have been very young for a second marriage, but she gave so many different ages that it is impossible to tell when she was born.

Hampshire County death records show that Susan Hines Corbin, widow of George Washington Corbin, died July, 1892. Her son, George Thomas Corbin, stated that Susan was married to Ashford Corbin. Yet after Ashford died in 1890, Ellen Furr Corbin applied for a pension as Ashford's wife.

Ashford appeared in census schedules for Hampshire County in 1850, 1860 and 1880. In 1880, his wife and children were in Mineral County.

Hampshire Co. Court Records; Envelope 71; 1858: Kuykendall & Sherard vs. Ashford Corbin: Summons issued 14 July, 1858; Ashford owed $3.98. In Envelope 71-a, the plaintiffs were still trying to collect.

Veteran's service records; National Archives: Ashford Corbin enlisted 1 Sept, 1847, Romney, Va; Troop "E", 2 Regt; U S Dragoons; discharged 6 Sept, 1848, Jefferson Barracks, Mo; present in Mexico 60 days during the war with that country.

Military service records show that Ashford Corbin served from 14 July, 1861, to 1 Jan, 1862, in Co B, 77 Regt, Va militia, CSA. But he didn't mention that service when he applied for an Invalid Pension in 1889:

..... resident of Piedmont, Mineral Co, W Va; ... enrolled in 1863, Co D; 1st Regt; Maryland; PHB cavy; discharged Wheeling, W Va; May, 1865. Personal description, age 65; height 5 feet 9 inches; complexion sandy; hair light; eyes blue. In line of duty at South Branch Bridge in Va, Jan, 1865, he contracted rheumatism of left shoulder, side and leg, from exposure, building block houses.

Ashford received a pension (#4613), but it was in arrears at the time of his death. Ellen filed to collect the money due him, and later filed for a widow's pension. But she remarried one month after his death, so she was paid for only that one month.

Hampshire Review; Romney, W Va; 13 Mar, 1890: Mr. Ashford Corbin died in Keyser the last day of Feb, 1890, in about the 65th year of his age. He drew a pension as a soldier in the Mexican War until his death, and was well-known here, having lived for years with Col. Parsons and with the family after his death.

29. BENJAMIN CORBIN⁴; (Joseph³, Humphrey², David¹); b 1833, Tuscarawas or Coshocton County, Ohio; d 18 Oct, 1864, Arkansas; bu Pine Bluff National Cemetery; m 6 Oct, 1853, Coshocton Co, Oh, Susana Deeds; b 11 Aug, 1832, Athens Co, Oh; d 28 Sept, 1910; Douglas Twp, Montgomery Co, Ia; bu Grant, Iowa; dau of Robert Abraham Deeds and Agnes (Nancy) Simpson. Susana was called Suzanne.

Benjamin was probably named Joseph Benjamin, as he was sometimes called "Joe Ben". He was in Ohio the first of January, 1856. He has not been located in the 1860 census, but was in Adair County, Missouri, by 1861.

After the Civil War started, the Corbins were harrassed by southern guerrillas. Family stories say that Ben went out the bed-room window several times to escape parties of marauders. Finally, he gave up the struggle, and joined the Union Army. He was enrolled as a private 17 February, 1864, at Hannibal, Missouri, in Company H, 7th Regiment Missouri Cavalry. He died of disease 18 October, 1864, near Pine Bluff, Arkansas, and is buried there. In Susana's pension application of 1865, she says Benjamin died of "Pneumona or Nervis Fever". In an 1869 document, Abraham Deeds states that Benjamin died of "Chronic Dyarrheas".

30 January, 1865, Adair County, Missouri, Susana applied for a pension. Her brother, Abram B Deeds, and Benjamin's brother, Daniel Corbin, signed with her.

Susana and the boys went to Ohio, and lived with her parents. On 10 April, 1869, Abraham Deeds was appointed guardian of his three grandsons. On 11 December, 1869, Abraham applied for pension money for the boys. He said, "And that a declaration for said pension was filed by their mother Mrs. Susana Corbin but that the same has been abandoned on account of her remarriage to John Schnell". A certificate was filed 24 Sept, 1870, authorizing $2.00 per month for the boys until they reached the age of 16. It provided for retroactive payment for Susana and her sons.

4 Apr, 1871; Coshocton Co, Oh; DB 44:323: Abraham Deeds bought 69 plus acres of land for $700, and recorded it in the names of his grandsons, Abraham, Richard and John Corbin. Their mother, Susana Deeds Corbin Snell was to have life-time use of a certain portion of the land.

Vol. 8; page 17; cases 3565A; 8724A; Coshocton Co. Court of Common Pleas: John & Susana Snell vs Abraham, Richard, and John Corbin, and Abraham Deeds. Petition for partition of land; Susana claimed that, without her consent, her father used her pension money to buy the land (44:323) and recorded it so that she couldn't sell any of it. The court divided it among her and the boys.

There is a problem with David's birthdate. The records of the Evans Creek Lutheran Church, Tuscarawas Co, Oh, have been printed, and in that booklet, David's birthdate is given as 16 Sept, 1843; baptised 6 Jan, 1844. All other records indicate that David was born in 1841, probably in Indiana, and Daniel Corbin was born in Sept, 1843. I have not been able to have the original checked, but it appears that the transcriber misread Daniel as David.

Family tradition says that David tried to enlist for service in the Civil War, but was rejected because he was blind in one eye.

In 1870, David and his children were living with David's brother, Henry. By 1876, David was in Ohio. His son, William, was there, but apparently the other two children stayed in Missouri. In 1900, David was in Harrison Co, Mo, where he and an Everhart relative, Arch Beverlin, were servants in the household of Joel J. Duncan. Arch married David's niece, Emma J. Corbin, and David lived with them for a time. He spent some time at Grant, Iowa, where some of his family lived, and then disappeared. One story said he went to work on the Panama Canal, but he would have been past 60 then.

In the 1850 census, Coshocton County, Ohio, Daniel was living in the David Funk home, next door to Joseph Corbin. The Funks were from Virginia; I don't know if they were related. Daniel went to Adair County, Missouri, about 1855, with his family.

Daniel enlisted in Company F, 10th Missouri Infantry, at the beginning of the Civil War. He was discharged 17 Oct, 1862, Jackson, Tennessee. A grandson, Joseph E. Corbin, wrote:

My father told me that Daniel B. Corbin was five feet ten inches tall, and weighed 173 pounds when he went into the Army. They fed him raw beans and raw meat, then sent him home to die. When he was discharged, he weighed 83 pounds. He had stomach trouble all his life, but got better the older he got. He received a veteran's pension until his death, and then it went to his widow.

One time Daniel took a job making 10,000 fence rails. He chopped the trees and split the rails with an axe. He cleared a 40 acre farm in Schuyler County.

Great-granddaughter Geraldine Peal wrote:

Daniel was a farmer most of his life. He and Margaret married and settled in Schuyler County, Missouri. They made at least two trips to Oklahoma in covered wagons, and then moved to Couch, Missouri. At one time they went to Florida and bought an orange grove, but didn't stay long, and came back to Couch.

I remember the only time I ever saw them. They came down to Bearden, Arkansas, for a visit with George and Rebecca Corbin. I was about 5 or 6 years old. Daniel seemed so tall to me. Margaret wasn't very big, and she smoked a little clay pipe and home grown tobacco. It was too tempting to my brother, sister and me. My brother slipped the pipe out; we took it out behind the garage, fired it up and started puffing. Of course we were three very sick kids. The worst part was that we didn't have to tell any of the adults what was the matter- they could smell us.

Daniel died at the state hospital at Farmington, Missouri. He had a severe fever, and it affected his mind. The family was afraid that he might harm Margaret, so they committed him to Farmington.

By 1856, Abner and Lucinda were in Wayne Co, Ia; (Corydon, # 54:57) Abner had been in Iowa for 11 years; he was listed as a clergyman and member of the militia, an unusual combination. In 1900, Abner's brother Benjamin called Abner a soldier, and listed him with family members who served in the Civil War, but this is the only military connection I have found.

1 June, 1864; Religious Telescope; (U B) page 157: The subject of this brief memoir was born in Hampshire County, Virginia, on the 23rd day of September, AD 1823. He was converted to Christianity when about twenty years of age....

Seventeen years of his life were entirely devoted to the itinerancy in the State of Iowa; and during the last seven years, he traveled as Presiding Elder, which relation he sustained at his death.

.....Brother Corbin's illness was but of a few days' continuance His remains were conducted to the College Chapel in Western, where his funeral services were (held)....

Bro. Corbin was a most efficient and indefatigable gospel minister.... In his conversation he was guarded, and seldom uttered a sentence which could be construed into levity. Still he was cheerful and companionable;He seldom missed an appointment. Amid pelting storms and driving rains, swimming creeks and rivers, facing the keen wintry blasts, or sweltering beneath the rays of a burning sun, he was always prompt to meet his congregations..... He has probably received more members into the fellowship of the church than any other man

On 15 June, 1864, the Religious Telescope reprinted an article from the Western College Advocate. It eulogized Abner Corbin, and asked all members of the East Des Moines Conference to contribute to a fund for a tombstone for Brother Corbin.

Benjamin was probably born in Hampshire County, Virginia, and lived there until the mid-1840s, when his family moved to Taylor County, Virginia. They appeared there in the 1850 census. About 1851, the Corbins went to Coshocton County, Ohio. In 1856, Benjamin was residing in Corydon Township, Wayne County, Iowa. He was still there in 1860.

Ben enlisted 15 August, 1862, at Corydon, in Co F, 35th Iowa Infantry. He was mustered in 15 Oct, 1862. He transferred 12 Nov, 1864, to Co E, 34th Consolidated Battalion, and was discharged 17 August, 1865, at Houston, Texas. In later years, he received a pension.

In 1866, Ben was at Haywarden, Sioux Co, Iowa. By 1870, he was in Jefferson Twp, Wayne County, Ia, and in 1880, was recorded, with his family, in Benton Twp, Wayne County. He also appeared in Grant Twp, Plymouth Co, Ia, in the 1880 census. He and his son, George Benjamin, were in the household of Ben's brother, Isaiah.

Ben could be described as a colorful character. His occupation was wolf hunting. He must have moved to the wilds of northwest Iowa shortly after the 1880 census was taken. He lived in Monona County, at least for a time. On 8 September, 1883, he joined the GAR at Smithland, Woodbury County. He was dropped from the rolls on 26 September, 1885, presumably because he had moved to North Dakota. He lived first in Stark County, and finally settled on the Missouri River near Glencoe, in Emmons County.

In 1900, Ben published a small book entitled Corbin's Advice or the Wolf Hunter's Guide. His granddaughter, Anna Burtt's Corbin, had the little book reprinted in 1966. In a forward, she wrote, "I dedicate this reprinting of the Wolf Hunter's Advice to my Grandfather, Benj. Corbin, who descended from the British Peerage."

Excerpts from the book:

page 12: I am a hunter by birth, a veritable nimrod from away back. My father hunted redskins with Daniel Boone and counted the notches on his gunbarrel, a notch for every scalp, fourteen in all (Note: I am afraid that this was a "tall tale". Daniel Boone moved to Missouri in 1799, and Benjamin would have been under ten years of age then. But it is possible that David or Daniel Corbin knew him, as Daniel Boone moved to the Kanawha Valley of West Virginia after the Revolutionary War, and apparently lived there until 1799.)

..... Father used to hear the wolves howl, and it made him smile when he was camping out, for he knew there were dollars for him in every howl..... The state of Virginia paid $5, the county $5, and stockmen made it $20 for anyone who killed a wolf in Hampshire County.

My father's gun had a flint lock. I learned to shoot with it. Many a time it snapped, and I would lick the frisen and try again. But with that old fusee he made $125 one day ... Hearing father tell about making money catching wolf and bear encouraged me to go into the business.

Honesty and Fair Dealing Ben Corbin, of Grant Center, Iowa, is the Only Man in the Business
Fish, Wine, Wolves or Land

I have the finest location in Iowa for hunting, fishing or drinking wine. I sell fish at 10 cents per pound and fine pure wine at $1.50 per gallon, put up in good style and sweetened to the taste. Duck hunters, sporting men and trappers will be charged 25 cents per meal at my house; but I will give you a good square meal .

I can, and do, catch more wolves in a month than any man living, but the money must be in sight first.

Elizabeth m (2) 24 Mar, 1872, Wayne Co, Ia, William Querry; b ca 1819; d 23 Dec, 1905, Ellsworth Co, Ks.

John enlisted 14 Dec, 1861, Fairfield, Iowa, as a private in Company G, 4th Iowa Volunteer Cavalry. Papers from his widow's pension file state that he died 22 July, 1863, "while on a march from Vicksburg to Jackson or returning, from a fever, and very suddenly, some thought sun stroke". Military records say that he died 23 July, 1863, at the Regimental Hospital.

In 1870, Elizabeth and the children were residing in Wayne County, Iowa. She received a widow's pension, but it stopped when she married William Querry. On 14 May, 1873, William applied, as legal guardian, for a pension for John's children. Sometime after 1880, the Querrys moved to Ellsworth County, Kansas. After William's death, Elizabeth's pension was reinstated. Elizabeth had two Querry children: Nora E; b ca 1872, and Edward P; b ca 1874. Elizabeth was living with Edward at the time of her death.

In an affidavit filed in 1912, Isaiah stated that he was born in Hampshire County, Virginia. A 1921 paper said he was born in Taylor County, Virginia. His death record gives his birthplace as Parkersburg, Virginia. There are also discrepancies in information given by Isaiah concerning his birth year.

Isaiah Corbin, age 18, address Centerville, Ia; enlisted 29 July, 1863, Davenport, Ia, Co H, 8th Iowa Volunteer Cavalry. He was taken prisoner 30 July, 1864, at Newnan, Georgia, and was paroled December, 1864, at Annapolis, Maryland. He was sent to Benton Barracks, Missouri, and while there was treated for an ulcer and varioloid (a mild form of smallpox). He was mustered out 25 May, 1865 at Davenport, Iowa. Grade at discharge, private.

Isaiah received an invalid pension based on his military service. (certificate # 1181,862) Over the years, he compiled a thick pension file:

- 30 Sept, 1893: I don't have an application from this period, but two affidavits were made, testifying that, in 1872, Isaiah injured his left thumb. A felon developed on the thumb, resulting in amputation of the first joint. He received a pension but I don't know the amount.
- 30 Jan, 1897; a resident of Dirks Town, Lyman Co, SD: totally unable to earn a support fractured shin, piles, rheumatism, and general debility Isaiah stated that he believed his disability entitled him to $12 per month.
- 1898- 1901: Isaiah filled out routine questionnaires that apparently had no affect on his pension.
- 12 June, 1912: a resident of Stowers, Adams Co, ND ... he makes this declaration for the purpose of being placed on the pension roll under the provisions of the act of May 11, 1912.
- 8 Dec, 1921: a resident of Chester, Lake Co, SD ... description at enlistment: height, five feet, five and one-quarter inches; complexion light; eyes blue; hair light Disabilities: Rhuematism in left shoulder and deformed and crippled right foot ... his occupation has been mail carrier and taking care of a park....

Isaiah suffered from an itchy foot; his pension file provides a travelogue of his wanderings after the Civil War:

- 1866: Batavia, Jefferson Co, Ia
- 1867-69: briefly at Cedar Rapids, Linn Co, Ia; then Clarke Co, Ia.
- 1870: Polk Co, Ia
- 1871-76: Clearwater, Antelope Co, Nebr.
- 1876-80: Le Mars, Plymouth Co, Ia.
- 1880-92: Caliope, Sioux Co, Ia. Isaiah joined the GAR at Ireton, Sioux County. On 30 June, 1891, he was suspended, and was dropped from the organization on 12 August, 1893.
- 1892-98: Dirks Town, Lyman Co, SD.
- 1898-1910: Madison, Lake Co, SD.
- 1910: Isaiah moved to Stowers, Adams Co, ND. I don't know how long he was there.
- 8 Dec, 1921: a resident of Chester, Lake Co, SD.

At the time of his death, Isaiah was living in Madison, Lake Co, SD, in the home of his son, Henry. Isaiah broke a hip on 15 Jan, 1936, and then contracted influenza. His total estate was listed as $10 worth of clothing.

From obituary of Isaiah Corbin: at the age of three years moved with his parents to Centerville, Ia. His parents died shortly thereafter and Mr. Corbin made his home with a sister until he enlisted He was taken prisoner while with Sherman on his famous march to the sea in connection with the McCook-Stoneman raid in Georgia. He was kicked by a mule during the raid, sustaining a fractured hip, and was sent to Andersonville prison. Four months later he was exchanged
..... He came to South Dakota in 1892 and carried mail out of Wentworth, later operating the Chester park summer resort on Lake Madison.

In 1870, Virginia Orndorf was a servant in the household of Joseph Corbin. She may have been a sister of Joseph's wife, Rebecca Jane Orndorf.

Abraham, called Abram, was born in Ohio, but moved with his family to Adair County, Missouri, about 1860. After the death of his father during the Civil War, his mother, Susana, returned to Ohio with her children, where they lived with Grandfather Abraham Deeds. Susana married John Snell, but Abram continued to live with the Deeds family.

Abram and his brothers drove a covered wagon to Missouri, where their mother and other relatives resided. Abram and Rich volunteered for military service, but when Rich was rejected, Abram refused to go. In 1877, the three brothers went to Montgomery County, Iowa, where their aunt, Mollie Deeds Patterson lived. They rented land just north of the Pattersons, and moved into the house on the land.

A family story says that Rich weighed three pounds at birth. He moved with his family to Adair County, Missouri, about 1860. Rich told his grandchildren that, one day during the Civil War, he saw soldiers riding by, so he went to the road and waved a little flag. The gray-clad men didn't seem to care for his flag; one of them scooped Rich up and carried him down the road a mile or so, then leaving him to walk home.

After the death of his father, Rich and his family lived with his grandfather, Abraham Deeds, in Coshocton County, Ohio. When Rich was about ten, he fell from a load of hay and broke his arm in the elbow. It wasn't set properly, and healed crooked. At one time he volunteered for military service, but was rejected because of the arm.

Rich was supporting himself at an early age. The 1870 census of Oxford Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, shows Richard Corbin, age 14, farm hand, in the household of Levi C Leighninger.

About 1875, Rich and his brothers went back to Missouri where their mother was living. The story was told that they left Ohio in the middle of the night to evade a girl named Mollie March, who was wanting to marry Rich. The brothers spent about two years in Missouri. Rich, Abram, and their Uncle Conaway, who was their age, worked one winter felling timber.

In 1877, the three brothers went to Douglas Township, Montgomery County, Iowa, where their aunt, Mollie Deeds Patterson lived. They rented some land just north of the Patterson farm. The house on their farm was a good-sized one for that time and place. It had four large rooms and a floored loft; it stood on the east bank of the Seven Mile River.

Abram and Rich grew up more or less on their own, and had to learn to cope with a rough way of life. The following story was told by a relative:

Shortly after the Corbin brothers settled on the Seven Mile, Abe and Rich went to a box social. Some of the young men of the community started to heckle the newcomers, saying that they needed to be shown who was boss around there. Abe and Rich immediately stepped to the center of the room, and turned back to back. Each bent down and pulled a knife from the top of a boot. Straightening up, they announced that they were ready to be shown. But by that time, their tormentors had disappeared. After that, whenever the Corbin boys went to town, it was "'Mornin', Abe" and "How are you today, Rich?", and everything was fine. (Note: well, not quite; read on)

16 Feb, 1880; Villisca Review; Morton Mills: Douglas Township was the scene of a highly criminal law suit last week, in which Richard Corbin was defendant, being charged with stabbing one Mosier. It appeared from the evidence that there had been a difficulty between Mosier and Corbin and their families for some time, culminating in a family fight, at a lyceum, on the night of February 3rd. The case was tried before HS Lott, JP and lasted four days, resulting in the acquittal of the defendant. AJ Bryant for the State and JT Patterson for the defense were the attorneys engaged. Mosier is recovering. His wound is not considered dangerous.

7 Jan, 1893; Montgomery DB 24:348: AB Corbin and wife to Rich W and John Corbin NE4SE4; 8-73-36; 40 acres...

The house on the 40 acre tract was a small schoolhouse, but it was on the road, so Rich moved his family into it. Alice had attended school in that building. In December, 1898, Rich and John exchanged deeds for land jointly owned, and Rich became sole owner of the original farm and the 40 acres they bought from Abram.

Rich and Alice attended church services at the Patterson schoolhouse for a time, and then went to the Methodist Church in Grant. When the Baptist church was built, in 1896, they went there, and attended regularly until it was destroyed by fire in 1920.

Sometime in the late 1890s, Rich took a boy to raise. He was Will Coryell, born Apr, 1887, and was from Northboro; he must have lived with the Corbins for six or eight years. He later moved to Nebraska.

Rich loved good horses, and kept a saddle horse until his later years. In the 1890s, he had a team of Tennessee Walkers. Each fall, after harvest, Rich would hitch the Walkers to the spring wagon, and he and his brothers would drive to Greentop, Missouri, to visit their mother.

- 22 Sept, 1904; Elliott Graphic: R W Corbin was in Elliott Friday getting bills printed for his sale which will occur at home next Tuesday. Mr. Corbin has been in rather poor health for sometime, and has decided to retire from active work although he will still live on the farm. At his sale next Tuesday he will dispose of his horses, cattle, sheep and hogs. The free lunch at noon feature of the sale will doubtless help to draw a crowd.
- 14 June, 1906; Graphic; Grant: Chas. Jamison of Elliott has just finished painting R W Corbin Sr's fine residence west of town. Mr. Corbin has one of the finest homes in this part of the country and one of which he and his family are deserving and justly proud.
- 15 Oct, 1908; Graphic; R W Corbin Sr has rented his farm land to C S Givan and will sell his stock, machinery and grain at Public Auction in the near future.
- 17 June, 1909; Graphic; Grant: R W Corbin Sr has purchased a fine new Auburn touring car (Note: it was red)

When Rich's son Albert was married in 1920, the big house was turned over to him. Rich built two rooms onto the little schoolhouse, and he and Alice made their home there until the structure was destroyed by fire 17 September, 1931. Rich owned a small house in Grant, and they lived there until Alice's death. Rich then made his home with Albevť.

51. JOHN WESLEY CORBIN⁵; (Benjamin⁴, Joseph³, Humphrey², David¹); b 18 Aug, 1861; Adair County, Mo; d 15 Nov, 1950, Corning, Adams Co, Ia; bu Grant, Ia; m (1) 28 Jan, 1885 (VR), Atlantic, Cass Co, Ia; Olive (Ollie) White; b 26 Mar, 1868, Montgomery Co, Ia; d 28 Sept, 1912, Grant, Montgomery Co, Ia; bu Grant; dau of James Lewis White and Judith Price; m (2) 18 Feb, 1916, Villisca, Montgomery Co, Ia, Amanda L Heavin Beller; d Jan, 1927, Willow Springs, Mo; m (3) June, 1928, Willow Springs, Mo, Clara Brisley; d Aug, 1949, Sedalia, Mo. John was a member of the United Brethren Church.

After the death of his father during the Civil War, John went to Ohio with his mother and brothers, where they lived with grandfather Abraham Deeds. At the time of the 1870 census, John was living with his mother and her second husband, John Snell. Family tradition says that John stayed with the Deeds family when Susana and John Snell went to Missouri. John Wesley was still quite young when Abram and Rich went to Missouri, but they took him with them.

John came to Iowa with his brothers in 1877, and in 1880 was a farm laborer in the Sidney Botts household. In 1881, John joined his brothers in the purchase of the farm on the Seven Mile River.

After John and Olive were married they lived in a small house on the ten-acre tract on the south side of the farm. Apparently Abram and Rich gave their shares of that land to John, although no such deed has been found. In 1897, Rich and John bought land south of Grant. John bought a house and moved it onto the farm. In 1898, John became sole owner, and the family lived there until 1915, when the place was sold.

After John's second marriage, his wife, Lou, was in poor health. They thought a change of climate might help, so they moved to Weslaco, Texas. They lived there during World War I.

23 Mar, 1918; Villisca Review: Mrs. John Corbin and children left Tuesday for McAllen, Texas, where they will make their future home. Mr. Corbin left sometime before to make the trip in his automobile.

John moved to Corning, Arkansas, about 1920. In 1922, they went to Willow Springs, Missouri. Lou died there in June, 1928, and John married Clara Brisley. Soon after, they moved to Strafford, Missouri. John's Uncle Conaway Corbin left him a 25 acre farm, and they lived there until Clara suffered a stroke in 1946. They sold the farm, and went to John's daughter, Grace, in Corning, Iowa. Clara was unhappy there, and insisted on going to relatives at Sedalia, Missouri. John went to Oregon, and stayed with his son Dean for about three years. He returned to Corning, Iowa, where he died.

Will's mother died when he was about five years old. In 1870, Will and the rest of his family were living with his uncle, Henry Corbin. Will went to Ohio sometime after that, and lived with a Wilson family. In 1880, he was a servant in the household of Theodore Snell, Oxford Township, Coshocton County. In 1882, Will went to Montgomery County, Iowa, and stayed for a time with his cousin, R W Corbin.

5 Jan, 1911; Villisca Review: W R Corbin recently returned from a four week trip to his old home in Ohio, his first visit in 28 years. He was a guest of H G Little at Newcomerstown, and visited his foster parents, the Arnold Wilsons at Isleta

21 May, 1917; Grant Chief: J W Ashbaugh and W R Corbin have been appointed registrars for Douglas Township. (Note: for the World War I draft)

History of Grant, Iowa, Vol III; page 16; by Kate E Givan: W R Corbin worked for D Vetter, had room and board at Sam Smith's. Worked for Matt Smith four years. Bought A H Embree 80 acres- sold it and bought Higgins 80. Lived there till they moved into Grant.

In 1910 or 1911 he was elected road supervisor for Douglas Township.....

He was active in the Farm Bureau, and often served as a judge at corn shows. Director of the AN & S railroad, president of the school board four years, Douglas Township assessor, mayor of Grant fourteen years. (Note: Will invested quite a lot of money in the AN & S, and lost it when the railroad failed.)

There was always plenty of custom work ... The Corbins had teams for hauling, a wood saw, a dehorning chute and the first road drag. They dried seed corn, tested it and sold it commercially.

Anna was active in church and club work and was a 25 year member of the Legion Auxiliary.

In 1895, George and family were in Douglas Township, Montgomery County, Iowa. They lived in the old house by the Seven Mile River, owned by George's cousin, Rich Corbin. (see page 53) By 1900, George was in Lincoln Township, Daviess County, Missouri.

George's son Harry died in World War I, and left his insurance money to his mother. When Carrie died in 1924 (probate, Harrison Co, Mo), she left the money to the two youngest girls, who were minors. George, as guardian of the girls, invested the money in a 40 acre farm.

Couch, Missouri, was named for George Washington Couch.

16 Dec, 1956; Corpus Christi Caller-Times:

Oklahoma was still a territory and the Seminoles had just finished their "trail of tears" from Florida when a newly-wed couple, the G W Corbins, settled in Oklahoma.

Both born in Missouri, they left Couch, Mo, the year after their marriage and headed south for Oklahoma. The land rush took place six months before they arrived, but the country was far from settled.

The Corbins, who are observing their 67th wedding anniversary today, were both teachers at a Presbyterian mission school for the Indians, at Mekosakey. They taught all grades, with young Seminoles sitting in their classes. Despite the many spanning years since then, they can still recall the Seminole phrases they learned from the Indians.

Grocery shopping was a four-day event for the Corbins. They trekked to Oklahoma City twice a month for a grocery supply. This was a two-day trip each way. Mrs. Corbin was quite a horse-woman in her day, riding with ease both astride and side-saddle. But the grocery shopping was done in a wagon.

From Oklahoma, the Corbins moved to Arkansas and in 1932, came to Corpus Christi. Mr. Corbin, now 85, plants a small vegetable garden each year. His vineyard bore fruit last year for the first time and Mrs. Corbin put up jar after jar of grape preserve. Recalling the way they used to do it in Missouri, Mr. Corbin made a gallon or so of wine, too.

Lydia worked for the telephone Company in Stroud, Ok.

John William bought a blacksmith shop at Couch, Missouri, from Kather Johnson, and then hired a man named Miller to teach him the smith trade. About 1923, J W and three sons moved to Oklahoma, Arkansas, in a covered wagon. His wife, daughters, and Joe, who was about one year of age, went by train. J W farmed for one year on land owned by his brother Dan. The family moved back to Couch then, and J W bought a blacksmith shop. It didn't last long and they moved onto a farm two miles from Lula, Missouri, where J W and Lydia lived until he died.

After the death of her husband, Lydia lived on the farm in the summer, and spent the winters with her son Joe, in St. Louis. About 1968, she gave up living on the farm, and moved to Joe's home. When Joe retired in 1977, they moved to Alton, Missouri. They rented a house in town until a new house could be built on the farm, but Lydia died before the house was finished.

25 Mar, 1926; Emmons County Record (ND); page 1; column 6:

Joe Mills was awarded a verdict of $7,000 by the jury hearing the damage case in which Mills was plaintiff and Geo. Corbin defendant. The damage case grew out of the shooting of Mills by Corbin a couple of years ago.

Last fall Corbin was convicted on a criminal charge of assault and battery and served 30 days in jail, besides paying a $100 fine. It was his second criminal trial, the first one having resulted in disagreement.

Some time following the shooting of Mills, Corbin deeded all his property to his wife, and Mrs. Corbin then published a notice in the Emmons County Free Press and the Hazelton Independent that she would not be further responsible for Corbin's debts. As a result of the verdict obtained last week, Mills will now attempt to have the deeds set aside on the ground that they were given for the purpose of avoiding payment of a possible judgment.

12 May, 1932; Emmons County Recorder; page 1; Column 1:

George W Corbin, 80-year-old Emmons county farmer, the victim of a mysterious attack last February, died Saturday morning at 3:35 at his home in Livona township.

The aged man died from a complication of causes resulting from a blow on the back of the head from some sharp instrument when he was assaulted by an unknown person at his home during the early morning hours of February 18. The attending physician stated that his death was caused from a resulting anaemic condition and gangrene. Following his injury and partial recovery, he later contracted small pox, which was followed with a stroke of apoplexy which left him partially blind and speechless, according to reports from the family. With a vitality seldom heard of in a person of his age, he improved until a few days ago when he suffered another relapse and remained in a semi-conscious condition until he passed away.

Little is known regarding the slugging of the victim. He was found in a pool of blood at the foot of the cellar steps in his home shortly after midnight February 18 by members of the family. He had been struck from behind with a sharp instrument, probably an axe, which left a gash above the right ear. A bloodstained axe was found in the yard the next morning. The authorities conducted an investigation of the case but so far have announced no solution of the affair.

George Washington Corbin was born in Kerschocton county, Ohio, on April 5, 1853. When two years of age his parents emigrated to Iowa. He grew to manhood there and became an expert blacksmith, was successful in business and accumulated quite a considerable amount of property. He first came to North Dakota in 1885, but returned to Iowa. Later, in 1902, he came to Emmons county and homesteaded on the farm where he died. On occasions he worked at Linton at the Haugse blacksmith shop, and later became quite prominent as a riverman.....

Funeral services were conducted at the home, with burial to be made in the Glencoe Cemetery, beside his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Corbin.

Pioneer Traveling Overland Through Dakota and Montana Seeking a Home; from The Montana American; date unknown; by Mrs H A Smith, Vancouver, Wash: In the fall of '84, one cold and windy day, a small party of emigrants camped on the east banks of the Missouri River, near the small town of Winona, in the then territory of Dakota. This party consisted of my father and mother, two of my brothers and myself, five in all.

My father owned a small team of ponies, a winchester rifle, a small tent and some fishing tackle. Stranded there with only four dollars a month pension, he expected to take a homestead in the wilderness- for it wasn't much else then.

..... One evening our French neighbor called on us and asked the boys if they would help him to gather his corn. This they were glad to do for we needed money to live then, and considered themselves lucky to get something to do. Father worked around camp until he got everything in good shape and comfortably fixed for mother and myself

Father soon started fishing in the river. There being plenty of fish of various kinds, he soon had all he could take care of. These he peddled in Winona, getting ten cents a pound for them, always bringing home a supply of groceries, mostly hardtack, green coffee, a few canned tomatoes, black flour and some corn meal. We lived there until it got so cold we couldn't stand it any longer. Then we moved into an old log cabin near there. There were just two rooms, but they were quite large and much more comfortable than the tent. There was always plenty of wood to be had for the cutting. We traded with the Indians that winter and got most of our clothes. When the boys got through with the corn husking they went to trapping. They caught plenty of beaver then and sometimes an otter, saving the hides and shipping them and letting the Indians have the rest.

..... When spring came father wanted to go further west, where wild game was more plentiful, and look for a good homestead to locate on. We packed our camp outfit- we hadn't much else- into a light wagon, and with father's old hunting dog following, we started for the Heart river country. We reached Bismarck in about three days. We stayed there a week, then crossed over to Mandan on the steamer Rosebud, since sunk in the old muddy. From there we drove down to Dickison. We had lots of fun on the way, as well as tough times and some bad places to go through. From Dickison we went about 35 miles south and camped on what was my oldest brother's homestead, close to the big Heart river. We had plenty of wood and fine drinking water; there was also plenty of coal in the hills, and an abundance of wild game, deer and antelope being the most plentiful.

..... Father and the boys built a cabin, while mother and I roamed over the hills and along the creek We had no stove and only a dirt floor, swept as bare and clean as we could get it. The fire was built in the center of the room, the smoke curling up through a hole in the roof. That summer we planted a garden, which helped out on the living. We got along very well and the next fall the boys went to the Badlands to hunt. Whenever they got tired they would bring a load of game in and stay overnight at home, then go on to Dickison and exchange it for groceries and take the difference in change. It was with some of this change my brother bought me my first pair of fine shoes I had to wear since leaving Iowa. Previously I had worn the coarse red leather shoes the government furnished to the Indians, or moccasins.

My father, being of a roving disposition, wanted to come back to the Missouri river again. It was too lonesome for mother, and I had to be sent to school. We came back to Bismarck again, abandoned claim and left everything. We stayed in Bismarck until fall, then returned to our old camp ground near Winona. From there father took a trip alone out along Beaver Creek, past Linton (Winchester it was called then), about 15 miles east, and filed on a homestead. He then built a small shack and came back for the rest of us, the distance being 35 miles from our camp. It took us all day to make the trip and we arrived at our new home after dark. We just toughed it through that winter and held onto that claim. Our nearest neighbor was two miles from our homestead.....

We stayed seven years on that homestead. Five we spent in the one-room shack, the last two in a new frame house father built after he got an increase of pension, which was raised to 30 dollars a month, and he also got 600 dollars back pay. That much money, coming just at the time we needed it so much, seemed like a fortune to us. After father had everything fixed up good on the farm (that we called it, for we raised grain, corn, vegetables, etc.) and made a good living on it, he sold it to a Russian for another 600 dollars and bought 80 acres 18 miles south of Bismarck. We stayed two years. The house was built of hewed logs and very old. It had several attics and dark cubbyholes upstairs and was said to be haunted and all kinds of mysterious voices could be heard every night. We all got so used to them we didn't pay much attention to them.

My husband and I went to Minnesota the third fall after we were marriedThe Indians never bothered us, but I couldn't get over being afraid, and when spring came again we sold our improvements and started back the way we came. We had a good team and wagon and a new camp outfit.

We were just 14 days going to Bismarck. We drove to the old home and stayed there two years. Then we started once more overland to Montana. We were three months on the road this time We crossed the Gros Ventres and the Blackfoot reservation. The Indians never troubled us except to come to our camp and beg for tobacco, bacon and coffee. We traveled along the Great Northern railroad as far as Cut Bank, Montana, then turned south, crossed the Sun river and camped in the foothills of the Rockies We drove up a canyon in the middle of a rocky creek bed, winding around and out and in, until we came to an old trail the Indians had made with pack ponies.

Here I got out to walk, carrying the youngest child in my arms, leading one by the hand and one following. I thought we would never reach the top of that mountain, but with hard and steady pulling, stopping every little while and the four horses on one wagon at a time, we finally made the top. Then for the descending on the west side. We all rode going down, and I don't care to have that experience again. We stayed in the (Flathead Lake) valley one winter. The next spring found us on the road again, headed for Bozeman. By this time gypsying had got into our system so bad we didn't care if we never stopped. After several days' driving through timber, over sagebrush, bare prairie, drinking alkali water, living on sagehens, jackrabbits and getting stuck in gumbo mud once in a while, we finally reached Bozeman.....

We stayed there three years and were getting pretty well used to staying in one place. Then the gypsy fever broke out again. We sold everything we had but the team and wagon, bought a new camp outfit and were soon on the trail again headed for Dakota drove to Williston and from there to Bismarck. We located on a homestead of 40 acres on the lowland next to the river. Well, the result was we got flooded out every spring The outcome of it all was we sold out and this time we traveled by rail and came out to Idaho. We stayed two years at Bonil and came out to Salem, Oregon ... our roving days were over.

Albert attended school at Grant, then transferred to Red Oak, graduating in 1919. He played football at Red Oak, and was offered an athletic scholarship to Notre Dame, but his father wouldn't permit him to accept it. Albert farmed the home place, living there until he sold it in 1944. He served on the Grant school board for several years.

During the depression years, Albert did a lot of custom work to augment his income. He had a corn binder and a team of big mules, and day after day, would be in the fields from daylight until dark. Albert had a wood saw, but no tractor. A neighbor with a tractor joined him, and they sawed wood for most of the community. Albert was also a fieldman for the federal farm program.

In 1943, Albert started work as a USDA meat inspector in Omaha. After the war, a returning service man claimed his job, and the Corbins lived at Grant and Tenville, Iowa, for a couple of years. In 1948, Albert was recalled as a meat inspector, and was sent to Dubuque, where he lived until his retirement in 1966. In August, 1966, Albert and Ruth moved to Villisca, Iowa.

1787 Tax List; Hampshire County, Virginia:

Date	white male tithables above 21	white males above 16 & under 21	blacks	horses etc.	cattle
4/27, 1787	Corban, David	1	0	2	5

The law called for this tax registration to begin on 10 March, 1787. Apparently Daniel was born after 10 March, 1771, or there would have been two males between 16 and 21. "Charels" Corban lived next door to David.
