Notes

Not long after I started the fascinating search for my ancestors, I ran across the Pixley genealogy, by E. D. Strickland, published in 1900. I was delighted to find one of my families already recorded, back to the mid- 1600's, without any effort on my part. I continued in that state of euphoria for some time while I pursued other lines.

Then, eventually, I came back to the Pixleys. And it soon became apparent that I couldn't make the pieces fit. Cracks kept appearing. The more patching plaster I applied, the bigger the holes became. Without conscious intent, I found myself involved in a full-scale research project in an effort to determine my direct line.

Additional study showed that practically nothing was known of Robert Pigsley of Dighton and his family, and what little had been recorded contained many errors. And so the decision was made to attempt a new genealogy of the descendants of Robert. And it was going to be done properly, with everything thoroughly documented!

Well, it didn't take long to see that if I adhered to that laudable theory, I was going to end up with a very brief report. One of my co-workers referred to this as a "troublesome" family. And that is an understatement indeed. They were not prominent people, and their names are not inscribed on the pages of history. The people of Massachusetts were the best record keepers in the Colonies, but the Piggsleys defeated their intentions. The early generations seldom recorded births of their children, their deaths went unnoticed, and there are even missing marriage records, in a state that required filing of intentions in the home Towns of both parties before a marriage could take place. The Piggsleys rarely owned land, and if they did, usually disposed of it before they died, so left few wills or probate records. Sometimes they even managed to elude the census taker. And they followed similar patterns as they moved into New Hampshire, Vermont, New York, and other states.

It appears impossible to find documentary proof for all the members of this family. All data has been carefully evaluated, and some persons have been assigned to certain families on circumstantial evidence alone. I am convinced that everyone listed is a descendant of Robert and Hannah, but some will likely be in the wrong places. And there will be errors in dates; even official records disagree on those. Material of more recent years, supplied by family members, has not been verified. Records of female lines are given when readily available, but no special effort has been made to trace them as each one would involve another complete research project.

But after due consideration, I have concluded that a useful purpose would be served by preserving the information that has been found, and making it available to others. I hope the results will be both interesting and helpful to future generations. My goal has been to bring the families down through six generations. I have included names of the seventh generation where available. This traces the families to around 1900. Anyone who is interested should be able to continue his own line from there without difficulty.

Tradition says that the Piggsleys were woodcutters, but I haven't found any record calling one by that title. By the time the census schedules listed occupations, they were usually farmers or laborers. A few were listed as cordwainers, or shoe makers. Sometimes, the occupation was given as "shoe bottoms".

As with many old families there have been some name changes. Early records show Piggsley, Pigsly, Pigly, Pegle, Pegsle, Picksley, Pecksley, and others. After 1800, all the families still in Freetown became Pittsley, (1820 census, Picksley) and most of the families who had left Freetown or Dighton prior to that time wrote the name Pixley. I have tried to give it as it was used at the time of the event recorded.

Massachusetts had a law, in effect until the 1950's, whereby a Town was responsible for the care of indigent citizens if they had a "settlement" within the Town, even though they were residing in another Town. A settlement was established by owning property there for a certain period of time. The Towns went to great lengths to avoid the expense of supporting the poor. When a person had no settlement of his own, it reverted to his father, or even grandfather.

I have received help from a number of persons, and am grateful to all. But this project could never have been completed without the enthusiasm and dedication of two women who live a continent apart. My second cousin, Virginia Schneider, lives in California, and has haunted the Bay Area libraries to track down information that I needed. Perhaps the efforts of Helen Thomas, of Freetown, Massachusetts, are even more remarkable, as she isn't even related to the Piggssleys, but she has a deep interest in the preservation of all Freetown history. There are no words to express my appreciation to these two; I can only say "Thank you".

I have used the usual abbreviations found in a work of this type. Since the word Freetown appears so frequently, I have shortened it to Frt.

ROBERT PIGSLEY OF DIGHTON
and His Family

1. ROBERT PIGSLEY; b ca 1690; d after 13 May, 1761; probably Dighton; m 4 July, 1717, Dighton, Bristol County, Mass, Hannah Paul, b 1689; Robert and Hannah both "of Swanzey".

Hannah was the daughter of James Paul and his wife Mary. James was born 7 April, 1657, Taunton, son of William Paul and Mary Richmond. William died 9 November, 1704, age 80 years. He was married before March, 1657. (The Ancestry of Katherine Choate Paul, by Edward Jay Paul, 1914) Mary Richmond was born 1639, probably Taunton, died 3 October, 1715, age 76 years. She was the daughter of John Richmond, born 1594, England, died 20 March, 1664, Taunton, said to be the son of Edmund Richmond (alias Webb) and Katherine St. John, daughter of Nicholas. (Compendium of American Genealogy; Virkus)

The ancestry of Robert Pigsley has not been established. The book, William Pixley, of Hadley, Northampton and Westfield, Massachusetts, by E. D. Strickland, gives his name as Alexander Pixley, and states that he is a son of William II, but no proof of that has ever been found. I haven't found even an indication that it may be true. But in my Pigsley-Pixley line, there is a recurrent tradition that we are descended from one of two brothers from Scotland, who while still boys, were impressed into service aboard a British ship, and subsequently deserted in America. While there is no evidence to support the theory, neither is there anything to disprove it. Robert's marriage record says that he was "of Swanzey", which should indicate that he was born there, but no trace of such a family has been found in that area.

A Robert Piggisley or Piggley, took part in the expedition of 1710 to capture Port Royal, Nova Scotia, but I have no proof that this was our Robert. His commanding officers were Col. Shadrach Walton, of Newcastle, New Hampshire, and Capt. Joseph Chandler, probably of Andover, Massachusetts. This is of interest, as the only records found of the name Pigsley, not of Robert's family, are from that area. An Ann Pigslee married, before 1740, at Haverhill, Massachusetts, Samuel Frink. Abraham Pigsley married, 1736, at Elliot, Maine, Abigail Cox. This seems to be the same Abraham who appears as a Pugsley in the 1790 census of Shapleigh, Maine. The names of his children are startlingly similar to names used in Robert's family. But I haven't found any record of a Robert Pigsley in that area. The closest to it was Robert Peasley.

The following military records may, or may not, refer to our Robert.

From French War Rolls, Volume 24, State Papers of New Hampshire; by Hammond:

"An expedition was sent from England, which arrived in Boston 1 July, 1710, to assist in capturing Port Royal in Nova Scotia. The provinces of New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island raised their respective quotas of troops and provisions. The fleet sailed from Nantucket 18 September, arriving at Port Royal on the 24th; an immediate attack was made, which resulted in the capture of the fort on 5 October; the place was then named Annapolis Royal in honor of Queen Anne."

Muster Roll returned by Walter Elliott and Peter Capoon and examined at Boston, September 16, 1710, by Samuel Vitch, of Colonel Shadrack Walton's regiment. Included on the roll was the strength of Captain Joseph Chandler's Company: 12 officers (including non-comms and two drummers), 35 centinels and 6 Indians; one was reported sick and three deserted. Said Company was reported aboard the Sarah and Mercy and of the expedition to Port Royal.

Massachusetts Archives, Volume 91; page 10: a Muster Roll of Major Paul Mascarene's Company of New England troops, left to hold the fort, showing that Private Robert Piggley deserted 6 August, 1711, after 300 days of service. The New Hampshire state papers also contain this record.

Taunton, Bristol County Court Registry of Deeds; Book 12, page 188: Pasco Chubb of Dighton county of Bristol, Province of Massachusetts Bay, New England, husbandman, to Robert Pigelle of Swansea, in County & Province aforesaid, consideration of £ 30 lawful money .....warranty.....executed 5 September, 1718 by Pasco Chubb; acknowledged 3 February, 1718/19 by Jared Talbet, JP; recorded by John Cary, recorder and witnessed by Edward Shove, Wm. At the same time a deed was made (Book 12, page 387) transferring this land from Robert Pigsle to James Paul, Jr. of Dighton. This instrument must have been a mortgage, as the only way it differs from the above deed is the words "bond payable in year 1720".

Deed Book 13, page 415: Robert Pigsley of Swansea, husbandman, for £30 to John Simon of Dighton, lots 29 and 30 in Dighton .....executed 4 Feb, 1719/20, signed Robert Pigsley and Hannah his wife. Recorded 24 May, 1721.

Hannah didn't sign this deed, so she had probably died prior to that date.

2. ALEXANDER PIGSLEY<sup>2</sup>; (Robert<sup>1</sup>) b 7 Sept, 1719, Dighton; d probably between 1790 and 1800, N H; m 22 May, 1747, Dighton, by Rev. Benjamin Ruggles, Mary Wescott; b 1 Nov, 1726, Middleboro, dau of Thomas Wescott and Hannah Reynolds.

Alexander's first two children were born at Dighton, in 1748 and 1749. The 1771 List of the Polls and Estates Real and Personal (Mass Archives) shows Alexander Pigsle living next door to Thomas Wescut, in Freetown.

Town Papers of NH; Vol XII, page 49: Grafton: ..... The first settlement was made in 1772 by Capt. Joseph Hoyt. Capt. Alexander Pixley and family settled soon after.

The "Captain" was probably an honorary title, as no military service record has been found for Alexander. There is no documentary proof that this was the Alexander Pigsley of Bristol County, but I don't think there can be any question of it. The 1776 Accountability Test for Grafton has been lost, but a Benjamin Pigsley enlisted in the service there 24 July, 1776.

Grafton Co, N H, Deed Book 8, page 248: Know all men by these presents, That I David Bullock of Royalston, in the County of Worcester and State of the Massachusetts Bay, Yeoman, and Jonathan Thurber of Richmond in the County of Cheshire and State of New Hampshire, Yeoman, For and in Consideration of Thirty Pounds to Us in hand paid by Elexander Pigsley of Grafton .....containing by estimation fifty acres, and is lot number eleaven in the Tenth Range..... this thirteenth Day of August Anno Domini 1778 ..... recorded Twenty eighth day of March, 1786. Deed Book 8, page 250: .....Elaxander Pigsley to Hannah Pigsley.....

I have been unable to trace the disposition of the eleventh lot. Alexander is listed in Grafton Town in the 1790 Census, then disappears from the records.

29 July, 1814; Tax inventory, Grafton Town records: Ambrose Pigsley, alis Braley, the son of old Hannah.

- An Ambrose Brayley, age 40 to 50, appears in the 1830 Census, Middlesex, Washington County, Vermont. He lived near Alexander III.
- vi Levi Pigsley; bought land from Alexander in 1786. Levi appears in the Grafton Town tax lists from 1804 through 1811.

3. WILLIAM PIGSLEY<sup>2</sup>; (Robert<sup>1</sup>) b 6 Aug, 1721, Dighton; d 18 Sept, 1807, Hartford, Windsor Co, Vt; bu Delano Cemetery, Hartford; m Ruth Briggs, b 17 Oct, 1723, Dighton, dau of Benjamin Briggs 3 (Jonathan<sup>2</sup>, Clement<sup>1</sup>) and Sarah Allen. (From Clement Briggs of Plymouth Colony, Hannibal and Barlow, 1965)

No marriage record for William and Ruth has been found. They were not married at the time of her father's death 18 Nov, 1744. On 6 April, 1747, the children of Benjamin filed an objection to the division of their father's estate and it was signed by Ruth "Pidgley" her mark.

Bristol County Deed Book 44, page 224: William Pigsley of Dighton, County of Bristol, Province of Massachusetts Bay, New England, labourer, and Ruth Pigsley my wife to Samuel Reed ..... for a consideration of £ 30, warranty executed 30 October, 1759 ..... 15 acres more or less.....which land was set to us for our part of the real estate of our honored father Mr. Benjamin Briggs, deceased.....

1771, List of the Polls and Estates Real and Personal; Dighton; Mass. Archives: William Pigsley, Benjamin Pigsley, Robert Pigsley.

William bought 57.5 acres of land in Hartford Town, Windsor County, Vermont, 14 Feb, 1785, from Joshua Hazen and others. The purchase price was 57 Pounds, two shillings. (Deed Book II, page 47). He also bought land in Hartford in 1793 (Deed Book II, page 237), and in 1797 (Book II, page 506).

In the early days of Vermont, each citizen was required to pay a tax for the support of an Episcopal clergyman, even if he disagreed with Established tenents and never attended church. This was a cause of dissention, and finally was amended. Then a resident could evade the tax by proving that he was a member of another denomination.

From History of Hartford, by Wm. Howard Tucker, 1889; page 204: This may certify that Hezekiah Lincoln, Gersham Dunham, Juniah Chapman, Justin Smith, David Whitcomb, Daniel Hazen, Asa Pixley, Putnam Wilson, Philip Sprague, William Pixley, Joel Richards, Philemon Hazen, each and everyone of them belong to the Calvinistic Society composed of the North of Hartford and South of Norwich, and pay for the support of preaching here, and each professes the principle above described.

January 7, 1795

Attest: Sylvanus Smith, Moderator

This Society was known as the Dothan Presbyterian Church. Dothan was a hamlet lying in the north part of Hartford Town. The first meeting house was erected in 1798, but for some years prior to that, services were held in the homes. The Dothan Church later became "The Church of Christ of Dartmouth College at Dothan" and records from 1811 to 1847 are in the Dartmouth College Library. Members during that time included Eunice, Polly, Benjamin, Benjamin Jr, Selah (Celia) and Moses Pixley.

From History of Hartford: In 1806 a committee was chosen to divide the Town into school Districts. School number 7 was on William Pixley's land at Jericho. (a hamlet in the north part of town)

In William's will, he bequeathed one half of his real estate to his daughter Mary (Polly) during her lifetime, and the remainder to be equally divided among his other children: The heirs of Benjamin Pixley; Ruth Austin; Lydia Ingraham; estate of Elizabeth Austin; and Job Pixley. A committee was appointed by the Court to divide the property, and their report was filed at Woodstock 20 June, 1829. They appraised the land at $924, and apportioned it accordingly.

Children of William Pigsley:

12. i Benjamin Pigsley<sup>3</sup>; b 9 July, 1746
- ii Elizabeth Pigsley; b 26 Feb, 1749, Dighton; d before 1828; m 22 Mar, 1770, Dighton, Zuhannah Austin Jr.

Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution:

William Pigsley Enlisted 2 May, 1775, Dighton; age 25, stature 5 feet, 9 inches; order for bounty coat or its equivalent in money, dated Roxbury, 5 Nov, 1775

National Archives: Sept, 1776; William Pidgley was a Sergeant in Capt. Simeon Martin's Company, Lippit's Rhode Island State Troops.

Continental Army Pay Accounts, 1 Sept, 1777 to 31 Dec, 1779; Corporal, June 1778; deserted 1 July, 1779; returned or retaken 4 Oct, 1779; reduced to private; pay accounts 1 Jan, 1780 to 31 Dec, 1780.

William's gravestone says "Captain" which is remarkable considering his service record. William was married in Vermont in 1785, but is probably the William who appeared in Dighton in the 1790 Census. Eunice's will was filed for probate 13 Sept, 1826; William's was recorded 11 Apr, 1827. William left his estate to his brothers and sisters.

- iv Ruth Pigsley; b 11 Feb, 1754, Dighton; m int 12 Feb, 1780, Dighton, Abiather Austin. They moved to Hartford about 1800. About 1825, they moved to Washington County, Vermont, residing first at Kingston, and then at Waitsfield. Abiather was a Revolutionary War soldier, and received a pension (Number S - 12017)
- v Phebe Pigsley; b 11 June, 1756, Dighton; not mentioned in estate settlement.

In some deeds Samuel is called yeoman, and in others, cordwainer.

History of Dighton; page 261: In the early 1700's a young man named Samuel Briggs was strolling along the plain (known as "Buck Plain" even today) when he came upon a large buck lying under a rock among the scrub oaks fast asleep. He had no gun, but was determined to have that deer. He sprang upon the sleeping animal, at the same time grabbing one horn in each hand.

The astonished deer leaped to its feet and headed for the Taunton River about a mile away. The deer ran! Briggs held on! His clothing was gradually left hanging on tree branches, and when he reached the river he was wearing one shirt collar and two wrist bands! The deer plunged into the river and Samuel managed to drown and capture it.

Robert appears in the 1771 tax list for Dighton. He may have been the Robert who was a private in Capt. Elijah Walker's Company, Col. Pope's Regiment; the company marched 17 Dec, 1776, to Rhode Island and served 12 days. (Mass. Soldiers, etc) No age is given, so the correct Robert can't be identified.

Book 60: 202: 4 Apr, 1781; Robert Pigsley to Samuel Simmons

Robert appears in the 1790 Census in Westminster, Windham County, Vermont. He doesn't appear in the 1800 Census, and it isn't known just when he went to New York. No further record of Robert has been found.

No record has been found naming Robert's children, but some seem rather certain. A Braley Genealogy, by George Randall, 1913, states that Robert<sup>3</sup> was a son of Robert<sup>2</sup>. In view of the total lack of any further identification I have included him here, although he is just as likely to be a son of Alexander or Francis.

7. FRANCIS PIGSLEY<sup>2</sup> (Robert<sup>1</sup>); b 10 July, 1731; m int 7 Feb, 1756, Dighton, Hannah Trask. Very little is known of Francis. He is listed in the 1771 tax list of Mendon. In the 1790 Census, a Francis, living alone, appears in Lebanon Town, New Hampshire. In 1800, a Francis Pigsley, over 45, lived in Oneida County, New York.

b 1750; d 1819 (GS); bu East Bethany. Family tradition says that Anna was part Dutch and part Mohawk Indian.

John enlisted 19 Sept, 1776, as a private in the Company of Capt Joseph Parker; Col. John Cushing's Regiment. He served 60 days in Rhode Island.

The 1790, 1800 and 1810 Census schedules show John in Sharon Town, Windsor County, Vermont. He was in Bethany Town, Genesee County, New York, in 1820. About 1910, a Charles Pixley compiled a record of the John Pixley family. Mrs. David Steffenhagen gave me a copy of the history. The report says the family drove oxen in a wagon train, and the trip from Vermont to western New York took about a year.

9. JOSEPH PIGSLEY<sup>3</sup> (Alexander<sup>2</sup>, Robert<sup>1</sup>); b 22 Nov, 1749, Dighton; d 14 Nov, 1821; m (1) int 15 Feb, 1772, Frt, Hannah Raimont (Raymond); d 1 May, 1797, "in 47 yier of hir age" (Bible record); m (2) int 27 July, 1798, Frt, Hannah Westgate Pittsley; d 11 July, 1841, widow of Joseph's brother Benjamin.

Joseph served from 2 August to 7 August, 1780, as a private in Capt Joseph Norton's Company, Col John Hathaway's Regiment. (MA Soldiers, etc) It appears that Joseph was sometimes known as James; was he the James Pigsly who was a private in Captain Brearley's Company, 2nd Regiment, New Jersey Continental Line; mustered, Trenton Barracks, 15 January, 1776. (NJ Archives)

Joseph bought land in Freetown 12 March, 1788, from his brother Benjamin (Book 66:324), and 24 December, 1791, from Luke Hall (Book 70:272)

Inventory of the estate of Joseph Pitsley was taken 10 December, 1821; it was appraised at $359.25, including the homestead farm of 30 acres. On 5 February, 1822, the widow Hannah stated that it would be inconvenient for her to serve as administratrix and asked that another be appointed; Nahum Alger was named. At the same time, James and Alexander Pittsley signed a bond for $1000. On 8 February, 1822, the estate was declared insolvent. In the settlement, Hannah received four acres as her dowry, plus $80 to pay debts; the rest went to creditors. James Pittsley bought part of the land for $103, and Alexander Pittsley bought 30 acres and buildings for $250. (Deed Book 59:100-108)

.....We then set off to Hannah Pitsley the Widow of the said deceased for her dower ..... south to the back side of the House thence following the partition on the south side the chimney to the front entry including one half of front entry and half the front door with the chamber above and the cellar under that part of said house southerly of the chimney with a privilege of going to and from the Well and taking water from said well for her necessary use - thence from the middle of the front door to the line of the highway.....

Joseph had a number of children, but few of them have been thoroughly identified, so the list probably contains errors and omissions.

The birth records of Alexander's children in Orange Town call his wife Agnes. In Grafton records, she is called Anna. Son William's death record also says she was Anna.

Alexander enlisted, for Freetown, 31 March, 1777, for three years in Col. Thomas Marshall's 10th Regiment. Records show him sometimes in Capt Amasa Soper's Company, sometimes in Major's Company.

Benjamin enlisted at Freetown, 31 March, 1777, for three years, in Col. Thomas Marshall's 10th Regiment. He appears at various times in both Soper's and Major's Companies. In 1778, Benjamin was back in New Hampshire. (see page 10)

Benjamin bought land in Freetown 13 June, 1785, from Barnabas Ashley (64:61) and sold it 12 March, 1788 to Joseph Pigsley. (66:534)

Sometime after the 1790 Census, Benjamin moved to Plymouth Town, where he died 1 October, 1796.

Plymouth County Probate No. 15921: Oct 6th, 1796 ..... Benjamin Pigsley, late of said Plymouth, labourer ..... widow Hannah Pigsley filed for letters of administration.....

After Benjamin's death, Hannah married his brother, Joseph Pigsley (int 27 July, 1798, Frt). Joseph died 14 November, 1821. On 28 June, 1837, Hannah appeared in court to make a declaration in order to obtain a widow's pension, based on Benjamin's military service. Alexander Pittsley of Grafton sent a deposition stating that he was present at the marriage of his brother Benjamin to Hannah Wescote, and Mercy Braley Pittsley signed a similar statement.

Hannah was granted a pension of $80 per annum, retroactive to 4 March, 1831. (W 26898) But none had been paid when the authorities decided that Hannah's second marriage forfeited all claim as Benjamin's widow, and her claim was revoked. It was allowed up to the time of that decision, but meanwhile Hannah had died, and the money was paid, in 1845, to the surviving children.

The family Bible record of Benjamin's marriage and death, and the birth records of his children is in Hannah's pension file at the National Archives.

On 7 November, 1822, Job Pigsley appeared in Edwards County, Illinois, Circuit Court and made the following deposition:

..... That he enlisted in the town of Dighton in Massachusetts in the latter part of April in the year Seventeen hundred and seventy-five for the term of eight months in the Company commanded by Captain Peter Walker, that at the end of the eight months, he was regularly discharged at Roxbury in the said state of Massachusetts; that he enlisted again on the first day of January, seventeen hundred and seventy-six at Dighton aforesaid in the Company commanded by Capt Benjamin Pierce, in the Regiment commanded by Colonel Christopher Lippett, (Rhode Island); that he continued to serve in said Company for twelve months, the term of his enlistment at the end of which time he was regularly discharged at Morristown in the state of New Jersey; that he again enlisted at Dighton aforesaid in the state of Massachusetts, on the eighteenth day of September, seventeen hundred and seventy-seven, in the Company commanded by Captain Peter Dolaver, in the Regiment commanded by Colonel Henry Jackson, for three years, that he continued to serve in said regiment for three years, at the end of which time he was regularly discharged in the State of New Jersey; that his several discharges were left by him in Hartford in the State of Vermont in the year seventeen hundred and ninety; that he was in the following battles, to wit: at Trenton, Princeton, and Monmouth.

Company pay rolls and muster rolls provide additional information about Job's service. Places named on the muster rolls include Boston, Lancaster, Gulph Mills, White Plains, Providence, Pawtuxet, Camp Barber Heights, Camp Gravis Heights, Camp Castle Island, Morristown, and Camp New Bridge. From January to May, 1778, Job was "sick in Lancaster Hospital". Job's pay was Two Pounds per month until November, 1779, when it became $6.66 2/3 per month. He was discharged 27 Aug, 1780, at Camp Orangetown.

Rolls of the Soldiers in the Revolutionary War, Vermont; by John E. Goodrich: A Pay Roll for service done by men under the command of Ensign Elisha Partridge, 11 Aug, 1781: Job Pigsley; 3 days; wages due 4.0.20; miles, total, 10.8.....

Job left Vermont in 1790; he went to New York and was married there. He and his family were listed in Aurora, Cayuga County, in the 1800 Census. It was probably about 1809 that they went to Cincinnati, Ohio. About 1816, they moved to Edwards County, Illinois, and settled in the eastern part of the county, which became Wabash County in 1824.

From History of Edwards, Lawrence and Wabash Counties, Illinois; by K. L. McDonough and Co; page 282: The first house that occupied the present site of the town (Friendsville) was the log dwelling of Job Pixley, built about 1818. He came from the vicinity of Cincinnati, Ohio, with his wife and two sons, William and Asa, and a daughter, Abigail. The latter married James Andrews, who built the second house.

Job was probably a member of the Dothan Presbyterian Church in Vermont. In Illinois he and Parthena became Charter members of the Barney's Prairie Christian Church.

From History of Barney's Prairie Church, by J. E. Moyer: Roads from Ft. Wood, Ft. Barney, Ft. Compton and Palmyra crossed Barney's Prairie, and met at a ford on a creek; this ford was known as Arrow Point because so many Indian artifacts were found there. Here, on 17 July, 1819, a group of settlers met under a giant tree and organized the Barney's Prairie Christian Church. The brethren selected a site in a beautiful grove on the edge of the prairie and built a "stand" which consisted of a platform surrounded by seats made of split logs, hewed smooth on the flat sides. Here the church worshipped, when the weather permitted, for many years. In inclement weather they met in a house or a barn. This stand was replaced by a frame chapel in 1843. It had two doors, one for the men and one for the women. It wasn't until the building was remodeled in 1874 that one door was removed, and the sexes could sit together.

Records of Barney's Prairie Christian Church; Volume I, page 3: June 15th, 1821- The Church met According to a Special appointment for the purpose of settling a dispute wherein Sister Pixley was accused of telling an untruth and she utterly unwilling to make any satisfaction the Church could not fellowship her, and thought it best to withdraw from her and she was set aside.

The deposition made by Job in 1822 was for the purpose of obtaining a pension, under an Act of Congress passed 18 March, 1818. He continued:

..... nor have I any income other than what is contained in the Schedule here-to annexed and by me subscribed;

Schedule: one cow, one yearling calf, two sheep, four hogs, one bed and bedding.

And I do further swear that I have no family living with me except my wife who is aged fifty-three years, and one child, aged thirteen; that I have no trade or profession, and that I am poor and incapable of supporting myself without public or private aid, and that this declaration is made for the purpose of obtaining the provision made by the Act of Congress before mentioned.

On 24 May, 1823, Job's brother William made an affidavit stating that he had served all through the war with Job, and affirmed that Job's account was correct. He gave Job's address as Palmyra, Illinois. Abiather Austin and Zebulon Philips also sent depositions. A question had arisen concerning the spelling of Job's name, and Zeb wrote, "The said Job did inlist by the name and was known by the name of Pigsley, But since that time the family hath been informed that their ancestors did write their names Pixley they have made the alteration since that time". Job's application was allowed and he received a pension of $8 per month, commencing 15 December, 1823. (No. S 35562)

In the early days of Vermont, many communities formed cider associations. A cider monger was appointed for each group, who served as supervisor in making cider for all members of the association. The report of the cider monger at Jericho for

(No. W 15210) In 1848, she was allowed an increase of $10 annually, but had not collected it at the time of her death. On 4 January, 1851, her son Elijah filed a claim for the money due Mercy, on behalf of himself and his brothers and sisters.

In March, 1785, Paul was back in Westminster, and was still there in January, 1805. In 1806, he was in Bristol Town, Ontario County, New York, and appeared there in the 1810 Census. By 1818, he was in New London Township, Huron County, Ohio

On 13 June, 1818, Paul appeared before a Huron County Judge to make a declaration for the purpose of obtaining a pension for his military service. He stated that he was 58 years of age, and listed his service records. He said "that he is in reduced circumstances, and stands in need of the assistance of his country for support". He was granted a pension. (No. S 40263)

1 November, 1820, Paul again appeared in Court to clarify his situation. He testified that his total property consisted of "one yearling heifer, $6.00; one yearling steer, $6.00; twelve hogs (5 shoats), $14.00; 2 old axes, $1.00; 1 old syth and

Welcome has been found in several Census Schedules:

1790: Glocester, Providence Co, Rhode Island; 1 male over 16; 3 males under 16; 4 females.

1800: Welcom Picksley, Oneida Co, NY; page 207A:3
1820: Lyme, Jefferson Co, NY

On 29 April, 1818, Welcome, a resident of Lyme, applied for a pension based on his military service. He stated that he had served for nine months, in 1782, under Captains Dexter and Sayles, in Col Olney's Regiment. He made another deposition 4 October, 1820, in which he presented a schedule of his assets:

one cow, one yearling heifer, 2 jointers, join plain, 1 smoothing plain, 15 small monting plains, 1 cross cut saw, 1 hand saw, 2 fine saws, 1 compass saw, 3 setts of screw tools, 1 Laith, 2 chisels, 1 2-inch auger, 1-inch auger, 4 small bits, 1 p of blacksmith Bellows, 1 wooden clock, 1 fire shovel, 1 coffee mill, 3 earthern bowls.

Welcome was placed on the Pension roll 4 December, 1820; the amount allowed was $96 per annum. No date has been found for his death.

Muster Rolls in the National Archives list both Welcome and William Pigsley as serving from Rhode Island in the Revolutionary War, while the Rhode Island Archives show only Welcome. The Rolls in Washington show William serving from May through August, 1782, and then Welcome serving from September through December. Rhode Island records state that Welcome served from March through December. Also, Welcome is the only Pigsley in the 1777 Military Census. All this leads to the conclusion that Welcome and William were one and the same, so probably the following record pertains to Welcome:

Vital Records of Rhode Island; Part I, Volume 3; page 30; by James M. Arnold, 1892: William Pigsley and Abigail Place were married 5 July, 1781, at Gloucester, by Elder Wm Bowen.

Again, no list of children has been found, but some of Welcome's family still use the name Pigsley, so that spelling was considered in assigning children.

24. FRANCIS PIGSLEY<sup>4</sup> (Joseph<sup>3</sup>, Alexander<sup>2</sup>, Robert<sup>1</sup>); m 7 Nov, 1793, Frt, Lynda Ryder (int says Linda Burden). There is no proof that Francis is Joseph's son, but he fits here. In 1807, Francis, yeoman, of Rochester, bought land in Frt. This is probably the Francis who served in the War of 1812 from Freetown. He was in Capt Simeon Ashley's Company, Lieut-Col Benjamin Lincoln's 2nd Regiment of Infantry, stationed at New Bedford.

Francis appeared in Freetown in the 1810 Census. The reading indicated that he had ten children, but only one has been positively identified. There were a number of Pittsleys who settled in Chenango County, NY, around 1830. I think that at least part of them were sons of Francis, and have listed them all here, although some could be sons of Benjamin, No. 36.

From records of the Overseers of the Poor; Freetown:

Report of Charles A. Morton, Freetown lawyer; undated, but with other papers of the 1830's: Thomas Pittsley's statement- Thomas Pittsley lived in Norwich, New York- knew Joseph Pittsley- knew that he married Rebecca Field in Oxford

Village- was present at the marriage and saw the ceremony performed- knows that Joseph Pittsley and Rebecca Field went to the Town of Jericho to be married- could not get married on the ground that the Justice of the Peace knew or thought her first husband was living at the time- they then went to Oxford Village where they were married by a certain Esq. Cary. Cary questioned the parties- a certain Josiah Hacket Jr. a brother in law of Mrs. Field stated that her first husband was dead and that there was no obstacle in the way and thereupon the ceremony was performed- present at the time Esq. Cary, Josiah Hacket, Jr, Thomas Pittsley, Joseph Pittsley and Rebecca Field- lived 15 or 16 miles from the place that Field lived- don't know as there was a report that Field was dead at the time of marriage.

The Justice of the Peace in Jericho questioned Hacket in relation to the death of Field- Hacket stated that he heard so- Justice replied that is no evidence it is so and I can't marry you- they then returned to Oxford Village as above stated and were married by Esq. Cary- paid Esq. Cary fifteen Yorke (?) shillings for doing the job.

(Eleanor Pittsley's statement) Eleanor Pittsley wife of the above named Thomas Pittsley corroborated the above statement- excepting her not being present at the marriage although she was in the same town at the time, and could have been present had she desired it.

(Joseph Pittsley's statement) Joseph Pittsley was married in Oxford Village by Esq. Cary- lived in the Town of Norwich 15 or 16 miles from the Town of Jericho where Rebecca Field lived- 7 years in July since I left New York- 6 last May since my wife came into Freetown- was married to Rebecca Field about 25 years ago- don't know what was the Christened name of Cary- about 6 or 7 years before I left the state of New York I became acquainted with a woman who represented herself as the widow of Josiah Field. She had two girls with him- she had other children but can't be positive about it- the way I became acquainted with Mrs. Field was this- I went to Albany and was speaking with a man by the name of Hacket of my need of a house keeper- he recommended his sister-in-law Mrs. Field. I went to see her and made a bargain with her to keep house for me for a few weeks- and finally concluded to take her for better or worse.

There was nothing further on this- no explanation of what it was all about. But it was quite probably connected with the following item. If Freetown could prove that Joseph Pittsley was never legally married to Rebecca Field, then they would not have to pay the bill for her keep in jail.

October, 1838; Plymouth Town to Freetown Overseers of the Poor: Bill for support of Rebecca Pittsley in House of Correction.

Other bills for aid given to Joseph Pittsley were received from New Bedford, 1842; Attleboro, 1848; and Wrentham, 1849. The 1870 Census lists Joseph Pittsley, age 90, as a resident of the Freetown almshouse.

War of 1812. Mercy gave the information for James' death record, and stated that he was the son of Joseph and Hannah.

From the Will of James Pittsley, Bristol County Probate Records, 184:68, 26 August, 1865: To son Silas one half the house, etc, he having lived with his father and carried on the farm; remainder of estate to be divided among other sons. In the 1810 Census, Thomas was in Mixed Town, Berkshire County, Massachusetts. In 1820 he was back in Freetown. He was in Chenango County, New York, sometime in the 1830's. He appears a number of times in the Freetown records of the Overseers of the Poor.

November, 1857; excerpts from inquiry from Sandwich, MA, Town Clerk, to Freetown Overseers of Poor: .....Dr. Braley thought Thomas was born in a house near the corner of the towns of Fall River, Freetown and Dartmouth, but not sure which of the towns the house stood in as it was so near the corner..... He has no family except his wife; they are old people and not able to do much towards their support. He thinks he can get along with one dollar per week.

Benjamin appeared in the Assonet area in the 1810 census; he had three males and a female under ten. In the 1820 Census, Manchester, Hillsborough County, NH, page 859, the only children listed in the Benjamin Pittsley household were four females under ten. What became of the older boys? Perhaps they all died, or some may have been in Chenango County, NY. See Francis Pittsley, No. 24.

38. JOHN LEW PIGSLEY<sup>4</sup> (Benjamin<sup>3</sup>, Alexander<sup>2</sup>, Robert<sup>1</sup>); b 12 Apr, 1788; (Bible record) d 13 Apr, 1883, Scott Twp, Crawford Co, Wisc; m (1) int 29 June, 1811, Frt, Abigail Niles; m (2) Polly Evans; b ca 1782, MA; d 3 Mar, 1880, age 93 years (GS). John Lew's marriage records are rather confusing. In the 1810 census of Frt, a John Pitsly is the head of a household containing two males 16-26, one female 16-26 and one female under 10. This was probably John Lew, but were the wife and child his, or did they belong to the other man? Then the death record of John Jr. gives his mother's name as Sarah; was this Abigail or Polly, or yet another wife?

John was still in Massachusetts in 1813. John Jr's records state that he was born in Alleghany County, NY, in 1817, but in 1820 the family was in Lisle, Broome County, NY. Apparently they did live in Alleghany County after that. In 1850, John was living in Grant County, Wisconsin, and in 1870 he was living with John Jr in Crawford County.

John Lew and Polly are both buried in Union Cemetery, Mt. Zion, Scott Twp, Crawford County, Wisconsin.

No record has been found to identify this James, and he may not be the son of Benjamin. But no other possibility has been found for that James, and so it seems likely that he belongs here.

James Pittsley of Montpelier, Vermont, served in the War of 1812, in Captain Timothy Hubbard's Company.

Alexander served as a private in Capt Simeon Ashley's Company of Infantry, Col. Benjamin Lincoln's Regiment during the War of 1812. An Inspection Roll, dated 18 July, 1814, New Bedford, shows that Alex had 1 musket, 1 bayonet, 1 cartridge box, 1 iron rammer, 1 scabbard and belt, 3 flints, 1 brush, 1 knapsack and 20 cartridges with balls. He served from 8 June through 30 June, and received $3.75 wages; $1.16 clothing allowance, and 23¢ arms allowance.

Six of Alexander's sons enlisted during the Civil War, and four of them died in service. On 16 November, 1864, Fanny Pittsley appeared in court to apply for a mother's pension, based on the service of son George.

From an affidavit made 15 August, 1865: .... Personally appeared Fanny Pittsley, a resident of Lisle ..... deponent further says she was married to the said Alexander Pittsley on the 15th day of June, 1821, at Lisle ..... the only witness who is known to be alive ..... is said Clifford Haskins who resides in Potter County.... Pennsylvania.....

In support of Fanny's claim, George W. Stoddard and Thomas S. Squires made the following affidavit:

29 August, 1865: ..... That the said Alexander Pittsley at the time of and previous to his death was in very indigent circumstances and was possessed of no personal property or estate beyond a scanty supply of household furniture, wearing apparel and working tools; that for many years previous to his death he had been in feeble health and often was dependent for support upon the provision made by law for paupers ..... raised a large family of children but at the time of his death they had all married and left home except two minor sons, viz; the said George W. Pittsly, then aged about 16 years, and Lorenzo Pittsly, then about 18 years, upon whom the said Fanny Pittsley after the death of her said husband was entirely dependent for support ..... Alexander Pittsley left no real estate except a small lot containing about one acre of land which is worth about the sum of $50 .....

Fanny's claim was allowed, and she received a pension of $8 per month until 4 December, 1879, when it was discontinued because of Statute limitations.

IN MEMORY OF A PIONEER OF WABASH COUNTY

One by one the old inhabitants are leaving us. The time is fast approaching when it will be impossible to find one of those who have endured the hardships of a pioneer life. The last of those whom we have to record among the dead is Wm. Pixley. He died on Thursday, December 7, his birthday, at the advanced age of eighty-three.

Mr. Pixley was born in Aurora, Cayuga County, N.Y. Dec. 7, 1793, and emigrated to this state in 1816. His father first settled on the farm now owned by Mr. Younken, and was the third family who settled what is now known as Friendsville. On December 21, 1820, he was married to Miss Laura White, and soon after moved upon the farm where he died. He was endowed with intelligence above the average allotted to man, and was possessed of a superior memory to a majority of mankind. Often has the writer of this been entertained by his recitals of early life- and the graphic and entertaining manner in which it was told. He was, with the exception of the last three months, unusually active- both physically and mentally- for a man of his age. He resided on Barney's Prairie for sixty years, and I feel confident that he had not an enemy living, nor could a person be found who would speak ill of him. He raised a large family, most of whom are living, and the loss to them of a Parent is not often more severely felt.

Mr. Pixley was a veteran survivor of the War of 1812, and one of the early settlers in Wabash County.

(newspaper clipping, unknown date and origin)

Family tradition says that William walked back to Vermont from Illinois on an errand for his father.

While residing in the Cincinnati area, William enlisted as a private in Captain Joseph Carpenter's Company of Ohio Militia. He served from 4 September, 1813, to 17 March, 1814. On 3 June, 1871, he applied for a military pension, and it was allowed. After William's death, Laura received a pension.

Intentions for Abraham's marriage were filed in Freetown 17 Oct, 1811, by John Pittsley. On 26 October, a notation was made that Abraham's father, Francis, objected. Abraham probably married (2) Abigail Haskins, dau of Abner Haskins and Joanna Borden.

There is much confusion regarding Abraham's birthdate. His grave stone indicates that he was born in 1789. Freetown VR say "Died 30 Dec, 1853, age 66; married twice; son of Francis and Linda." But Francis and Linda weren't married until 1793, so both records seem to be incorrect.

This is probably the Abraham who served in Ashley's Company, Lincoln's Regiment, in 1814.

This Robert has defied identification. He was known as Robert III. In the 1850 and 1860 census schedules, he was living next door to James and Mercy, and he seems to fit into their family. Various census records show his birth date as ranging from 1815 to 1820. If he was James' son, he had to have been born by 1816, in order to miss the 1837 school census, in which James had seven children listed. He may be the Robert living in Taunton in 1870, married to Laura, and working in a saw mill. A Robert died 7 Apr, 1890, Freetown; age 72, widower; pauper; but I don't know if he was this Robert, or the son of Robert, No. 55.

pointed her guardian, for the purpose of obtaining the Bounty land to which she was entitled through the military service of her father. Amanda received 40 acres of land in Wabash County, under Warrant No. 33,629. On 27 January, 1855, Amanda and her husband conveyed this land to Samuel Hazelton for $50. 27 March, 1855, Amanda filed for 120 additional acres, to which she was entitled under a new Act of Congress.

In June, 1855, Amanda and Quincy were in Montgomery County, Iowa, with Quincy's family. Here Amanda received her second Federal Warrant, No. 87,204, and purchased 109.53 acres in Section 2, Douglas Township, just east of Milford, now Grant.

In 1869, Amanda and Quincy, with their family, moved to Lincoln Township, Adams County, Iowa, where they made their home for the remainder of their lives.
