

The Artlip Platinum Anniversary

A family celebration

About this book

A Platinum Anniversary Celebration

On April 3, 1942, Buzz Artlip and Elaine Corbin went in his “cream” truck to Maryville, Missouri, where they got married. It was Buzz’s 19th birthday.

On April 6, 2012, all of their direct descendants—2 kids, 4 grandkids, 9 great grandkids, a daughter- and a son-in-law; two granddaughters-in-law and a grandson-in-law—gathered in Villisca, Iowa to commemorate the Artlip wedding and the 70 years that have followed. It was great fun for everyone!

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 28, 2012

Mr. and Mrs. Charles and Elaine Artlip
102 Artlip Street
Villisca, Iowa 50864

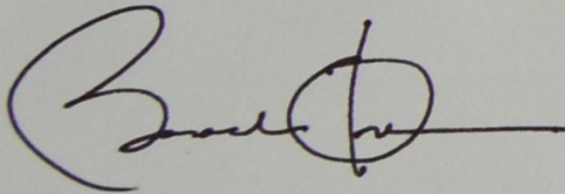

Dear Elaine and Charles:

We are pleased to send our congratulations to you on your 70th wedding anniversary.

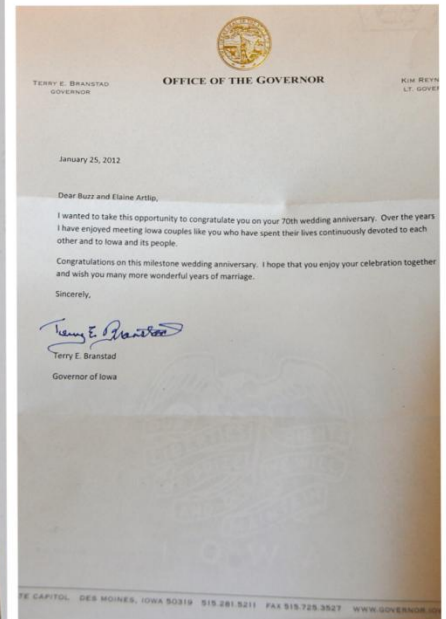

Through moments of great challenge and triumph in our Nation's history, you have supported one another and exemplified the strength of lasting love. Your marriage has shaped and enriched your lives, and we hope you look back on your cherished memories with joy and pride.

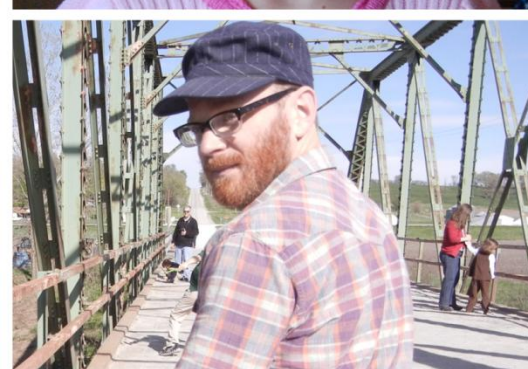

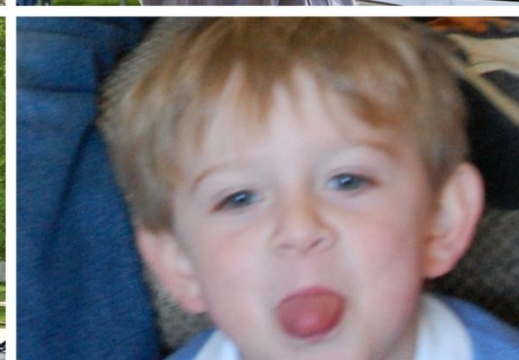

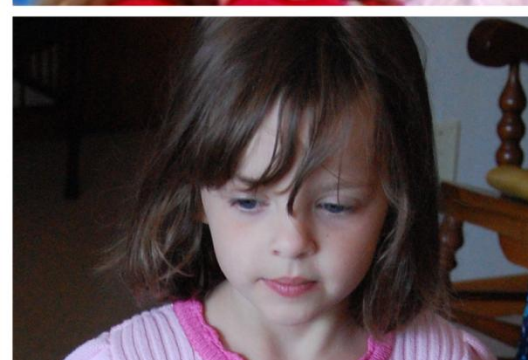

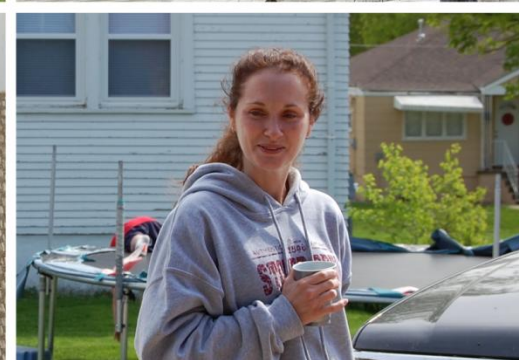

Congratulations, again, on this special milestone. We wish you all the best for health and happiness in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

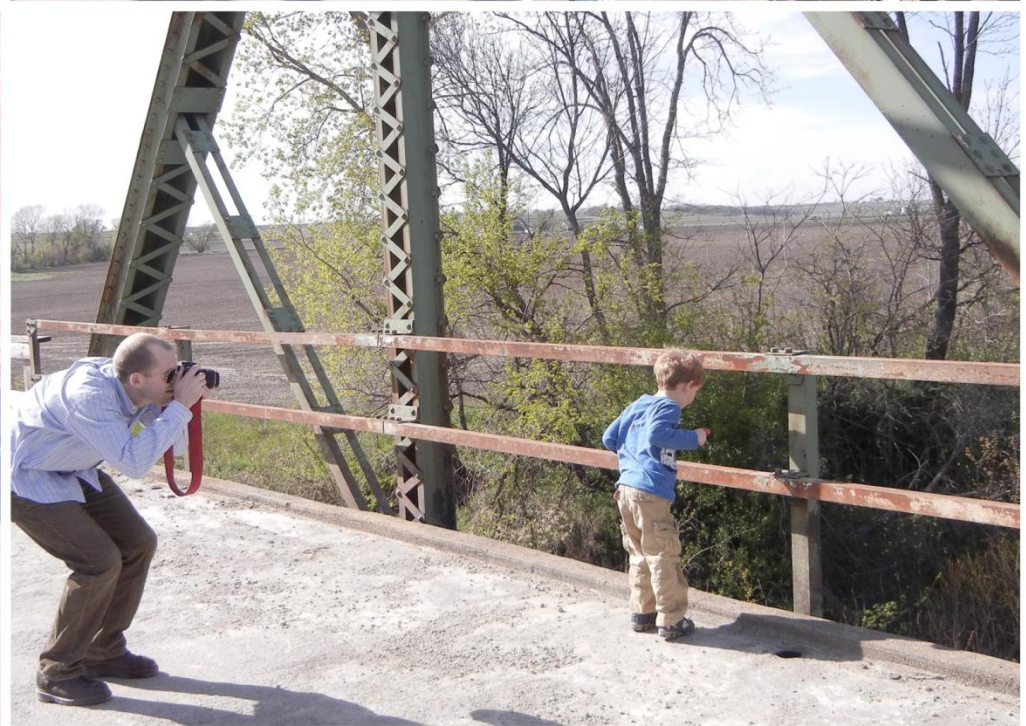

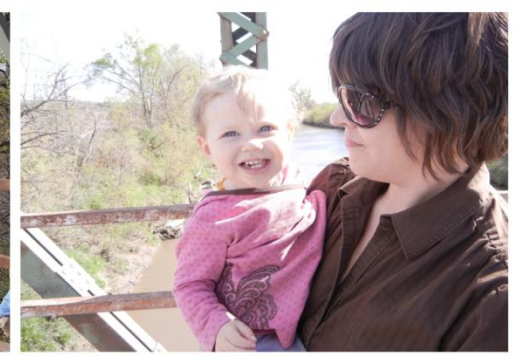

Michelle Obama

Anniversary faces

Introducing the newest generation to the Tenville bridge

The grassy banks of Tenville

TENVILLE CONGRATULATIONS

APRIL 3

BUZZ & ELAINE

70TH ANNIVERSARY

HAPPY 89TH BIRTHDAY BUZZ

TENVILLE CONGRATULATIONS

APRIL 3

BUZZ & ELAINE

70TH ANNIVERSARY

HAPPY 89TH BIRTHDAY BUZZ

Missing the photographer

POP 20
TENNVILLE
CONGRATULATIONS

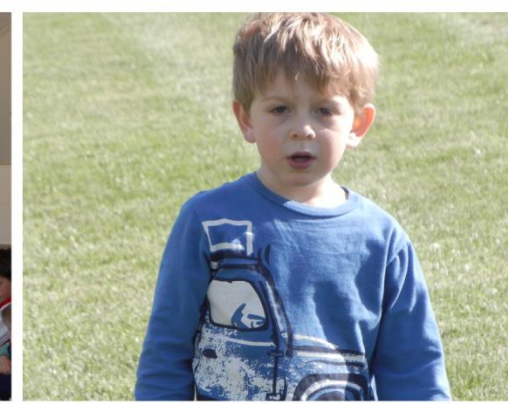

The Artlip Clan Plus Two Corbins

The Nine

Easter morning. Michael, where's your vest?

It's all relative!

The city square calls

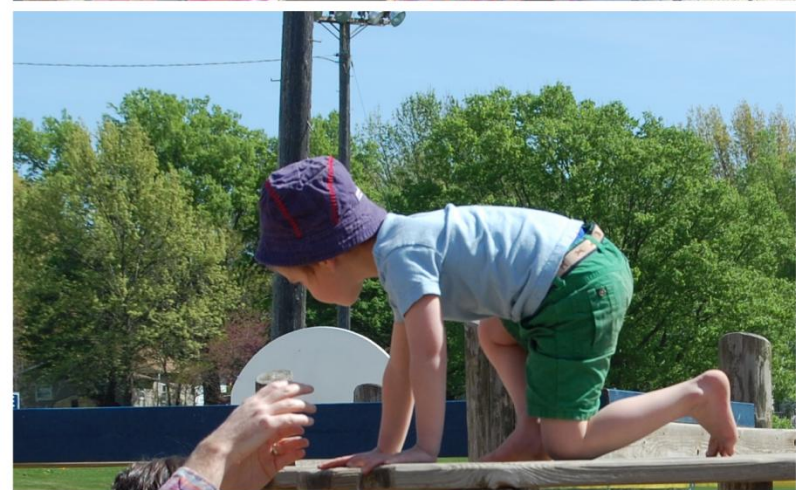

At TJ's with the SIPIs

Playing at Enarson

Nothing better than rocks to play in

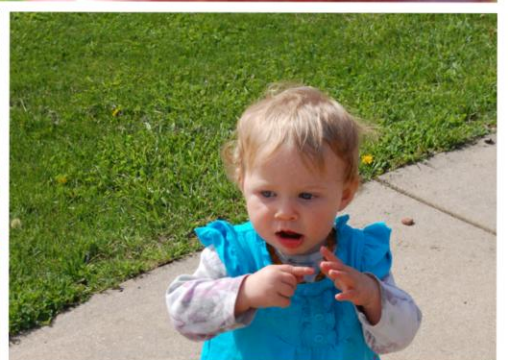

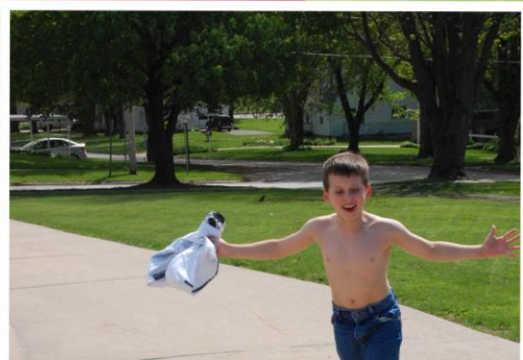

More rocks

At Artlip Street

Sunny Iowa days

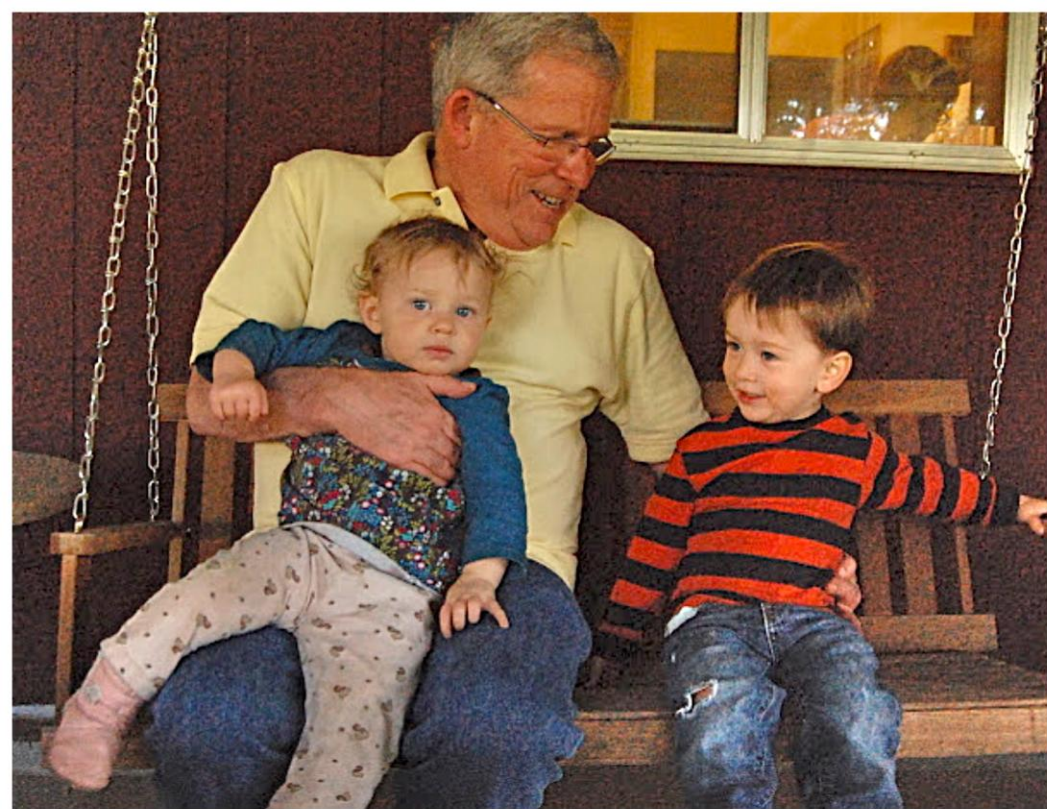

ANNIVERSARY

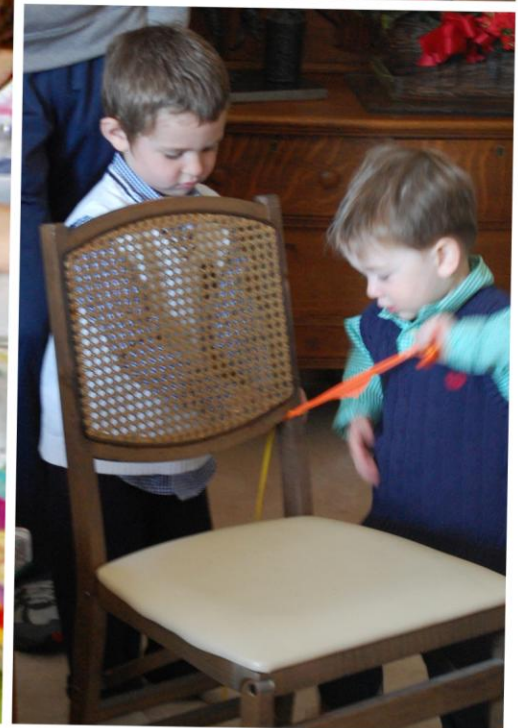

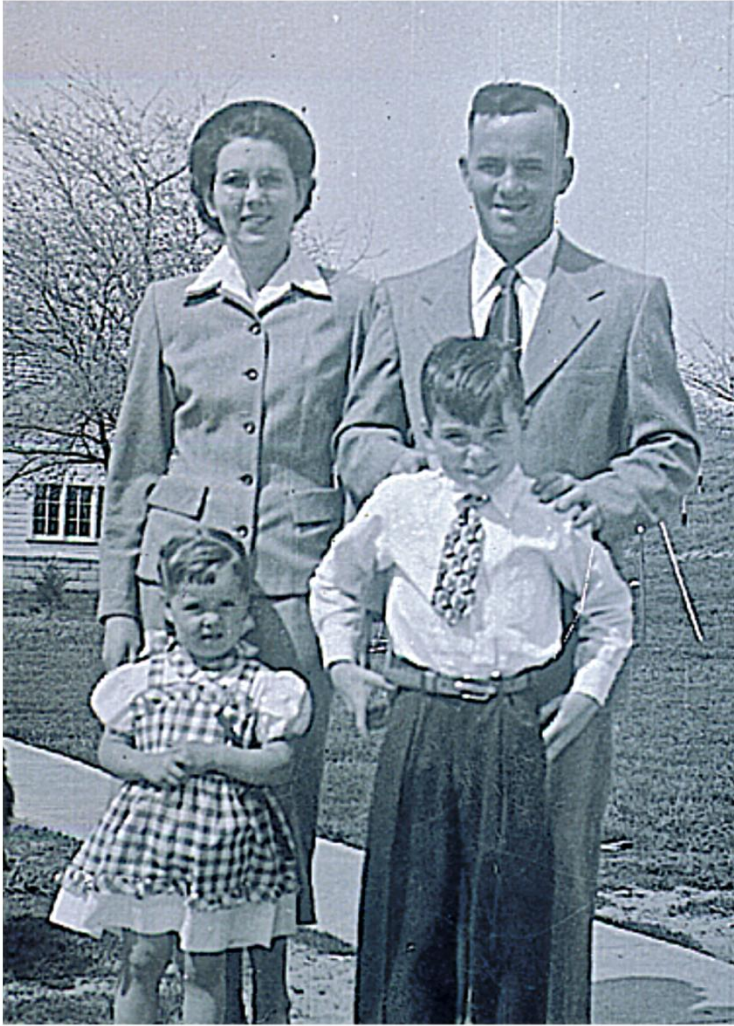

The cake is calling!

Keeping busy

Happy Anniversary, Mom and Dad! And many more . . .

About this book

On to the 80th . . .

The Artlip Platinum Anniversary

By Jim and Linda Weinstein
Some photos by Dave Weinstein
Sign by Brenda McClain