25 June 1834: I, John Deeds of the County of Fairfield in the State of Ohio, do make and publish this my last Will...And my big Bible which I give to my Son George...

Moultrie and Shelby Counties, Illinois History; Lovington Township; page 222; ... George Deeds and family, were formerly from Ohio, and moved to this county about 1835...In the winter of the “sudden freeze” two of his sons were frozen to death while returning from Lake Fork, where they had been in search for hogs. It was twelve days after the storm that they were found. One was in a kneeling attitude, apparently about to kindle a fire, as he had a steel and flint in his hand, with punk and a tuft of grass lying by his side. His brother was lying on the ground near him, while one of their horses stood close by, nearly starved to death, with his bridle rein frozen in the ice...

It is thought that Elizabeth Roush Deeds was buried in the Turner Cemetery, Moultrie County, Illinois. There is a letter, dated 28 December 1862, from Barbara Deeds Turner to her mother, Elizabeth Deeds. Barbara said she wanted her mother to come there to live, and that she would never want for anything.

1 June 1882; Coshocton County, Ohio: Whereas I Abraham Deeds, did on the Tenth day of May AD 1882 make my last will and testament of that day, I do now hereby declare the following to be a codicil to the same: to wit:

Firstly: Before my daughter Susannah Snell moved to the West I gave her the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, and at another time I gave her one hundred dollars, besides other assistance rendered her by me, from time to time, and though my said daughter has not treated me as a daughter should treat a father – yet I have determined to overlook such treatment, and I do hereby give and bequeath to my said daughter Susannah Snell, the sum of one hundred and fifty (150) dollars in addition to the foregoing sums heretofore presented to her, Said $150.00 to be paid to her by my executors within two weeks after they have duly qualified – unless I should live to pay the same hereafter – and whatever sum or sums I may hereafter pay or give to her shall be deducted from said sum of one hundred and fifty (150) dollars herein bequeathed her as aforesaid.

Secondly: In addition to the amount bequeathed to my daughter Mary Patterson, wife of Aaron Patterson in Item 5th of my foregoing last will and testament, I do give and bequeath to her the sum of Two hundred (200) dollars in money, said sum to be paid to her in two years after my decease without interest. And said last named sum – together with the sum of Two hundred dollars given her in said Item 5th, both making the sum of four hundred (400) dollars, which is all I intend said Mary Patterson to have out of my estate. I therefore direct that said Mary Patterson shall not receive anything under the provisions of Item 10th of any foregoing last will and testament. Said Item 10th, being that part of my said will wherein I dispose of the balance or residue of my estate.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this First day of June in the Year of Our Lord (1882) One thousand eight hundred and eighty two.

Abraham Deeds

28 October 1882; Coshocton newspaper clipping: Abraham Deeds, one of the pioneers of Oxford township, died Saturday evening, aged 82 years. He was buried Monday at the Brick Chapel on White Eyes Plains, with the honors of Masonry, he, for many years, being a member of that order.

The inventory of the estate was listed as $7,479.95. Sarah Deeds West sued her mother and siblings for concealing assets of the estate. The defendants were found guilty. The widow, Agnes (Nancy) Deeds appealed, but the disposition of the case was not found.

2 March 1894; Democrat Standard: Coshocton, Ohio: Mrs. Agnes Deeds, the subject of this memoir, was born in Harrisburg, Penn., Dec. 4, 1813 and died Oct. 12, 1893. In 1827 she was united in marriage to Abraham Deeds, by whom she became the mother of ten children, five daughters and five sons; one daughter and four sons have preceded her and five children, 43 grandchildren and 59 great grandchildren are left to mourn the loss of an affectionate mother. When about 20 years old together with her husband she united with the U.B. church under the ministry of Rev. Trexel (?). The last 6 years of life she endured great suffering and especially the last 3 weeks of life she suffered constantly without a word of complaint but to those who attended her she would say weep not for me, I am going home. After suitable funeral services were conducted at the house on Sat. by Rev. Orr of the M.P. Church, her mortal remains were borne by tender hands to the place prepared for them in the city of the dead.

25. Ephraim Brunner⁵; (Anna Margaretha⁴; Johannes³; Johannes²; Johan Jacob¹) b 19 April 1824; North Huntingdon Twp, Westmoreland Co, PA; m Elizabeth S Weaver; d/o John Weaver and Eliza St. Clair.

History of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania; A. Warner & Co., Publisher; Chicago, ILL; 1889:
 Ephraim Brunner was born in North Huntingdon Township, Westmoreland County, on April 19, 1824, son of Ephraim and Anna Margaret (Deeds) Brunner, natives of Bucks and Westmoreland Counties. His father, a carpenter, moved from Mt. Pleasant to Plum Township in April, 1836 and lived until April 14, 1867. His mother died in 1886.

Ephraim was of German descent on both sides. He received his education in Plum Township and began the carpenter's trade in 1852. He practiced his trade in Allegheny County, Pittsburgh, Turtle Creek and other places. He married Lizzie S. Weaver of Westmoreland County, daughter of John and Eliza (St. Clair) Weaver, natives of Westmoreland County.

Ephraim and Lizzie had seven children: Ida May (Mrs. J.B. Patterson), James R., Thomas Homer, Ulysses, Frank, Harry H., John R., all carpenters in the East End, and Anna Margaret. The family were members of the Plum Creek Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Brunner enlisted August 15, 1864 in Company F, 5th H.A. He, with forty others, was captured October 5 of the same year. He was confined for two months in Libby Prison, and for a like period in Pemberton Prison. On returning to his command, he was made drum major, but being wholly unfit for duty from the effects of prison life, he was discharged June 15, 1865 at Alexandria Hospital. He was a member of the G.A.R.

The Oliver Thompson family are descendants of Ephraim Brunner.

12 April 1907; Red Oak Sun: Aaron Patterson, for nearly 53 years a resident of Montgomery county, died Wednesday evening, April 10, at his home in Douglas township. Mr. Patterson had resided on the farm where he died since his coming to the county in 1854...

The funeral was fixed for Friday, April 12, the services to be conducted by Rev. W.W. Merritt, of Red Oak, and burial to be made in the cemetery at Milford.

Mr. Patterson was a native of Ohio, born in Guernsey county July 18, 1828. At the age of 14 years he left his father's farm to learn the trade of a tanner and currier, which avocation he followed four years. Upon attaining his majority he followed the trend of emigration to California it being in 1849 when the discovery of gold was made in that state. Making his way to what is now Kansas City he departed from that place on May 9, 1849, with an ox team. Nevada City was reached Sept. 14 of that year. His stay there was two years and, going on to the coast, he shortly afterward made up his mind to return to the "states". Taking a sailing vessel he proceeded to Nicaragua and crossed the isthmus to Graytown where he took another sailing vessel for New Orleans and from there by steamboat to the Mississippi and Ohio rivers to Wheeling, W.VA. The remainder of his journey was completed by stage, he arriving home April 12, 1851. For three years he was engaged in the milling business and at the end of that time departed on an overland trip to Iowa which took 40 days, he stopping and locating on the land where he lived ever since.

Mr. Patterson was married Aug. 1, 1852 in Ohio to Nancy Bryan, who died Jan. 29, 1867, leaving three children living and who survive their father, Gilbert L. and Mrs. J.C. Patterson residing in Red Oak and Mrs. R.T. Bacon residing in Douglas township. Mr. Patterson was married a second time Aug. 1, 1867, to Mary M. Deeds, who with a son, Vest, also survive Mr. Patterson.

...He was made a Mason when a young man in Ohio and was one of the charter members of the Red Oak lodge as well as of the lodge of Milford...

Abraham, called “Abram”, was born in Ohio, but moved with his family to Adair County, Missouri, about 1860. After the death of his father during the Civil War, his mother, Susana, returned to Ohio with her sons, where they lived with Grandfather Abraham Deeds. Susana married John Schnell, but Abraham continued to live with the Deeds family.

Abraham Corbin

(Note: Abraham Deeds bought this land in the names of his three Corbin grandsons)

Abram and his brothers drove a covered wagon to Missouri, where their mother and other relatives resided. Abram and Rich volunteered for military service, but when Rich was rejected, Abram refused to go. In 1877, the three brothers went to Montgomery County, Iowa, where their aunt, Mary “Mollie” Deeds Patterson lived. They rented land just north of the Pattersons, and moved into the house on the land.

59. A family story says that Rich weighed three pounds at birth. He moved with his family to Adair County, Missouri about 1860. After the death of his father during the Civil War, Rich and his family lived with his grandfather Abraham Deeds in Coshocton County, Ohio. When Rich was about 10, he fell from a load of hay and broke his arm in the elbow. It wasn't set properly, and healed crooked. At one time he volunteered for military service, but was rejected because of the arm. Rich supported himself from an early age. The 1870 Census, Oxford Township, Coshocton County, Ohio, shows Richard Corbin, age 14, farm hand, in the household of Levi C Leighninger.

About 1875 Rich and his brothers went back to Missouri where their mother was living. The brothers spent about two years in Missouri. Rich, Abram and their Uncle Conaway Corbin, who was their age, worked one winter felling timber.

In 1877 the three brothers went to Douglas Township, Montgomery County, Iowa, where their aunt, Mary “Mollie” Deeds Patterson lived. They rented land just north of the Patterson farm. The house on their farm was a good-sized one for that time and place. It had four large rooms and a floored loft; it stood on the east bank of the Seven Mile River.

16 February 1880; Villisca Review; Morton Mills: Douglas Township was the scene of a highly criminal law suit last week, in which Richard Corbin was defendant, being charged with stabbing one Mosier. It appeared from the evidence that there had been a difficulty between Mosier and Corbin and their families for some time, culminating in a family fight, at a lyceum, on the night of February 3rd. The case was tried before H.S. Lott, JP, and lasted four days, resulting in the acquittal of the defendant...Mosier is recovering. His wound is not considered dangerous.

The Corbin brothers bought the farm on which they lived. Within a few years Rich bought his brothers' interests, plus 40 acres which had been acquired by Abram. The house on the 40 acres was a small schoolhouse, but it was on the road, so Rich moved his family into it. Alice had started to school in that building.

Sometime in the late 1890s Rich took a boy to raise. He was Will Coryell, born in April 1887, and was from Northboro, Iowa; he lived with the Corbins for six or eight years, and later moved to Nebraska.

Rich loved good horses, and kept a saddle horse until his later years. In the 1890s, he had a team of Tennessee Walkers. Each fall, after harvest, Rich would hitch the Walkers to the spring wagon, and he and his brothers would drive to Greentop, Missouri, to visit their mother.

22 September 1904; Elliott Graphic: R.W. Corbin...was in Elliott Friday getting bills printed for his sale which will occur at home next Tuesday. Mr. Corbin has been in rather poor health for some time, and has decided to retire from active work although he will still live on the farm. At his sale next Tuesday he will dispose of his horses, cattle, sheep and hogs. The free lunch at noon feature of the sale will doubtless help to draw a crowd.

14 June 1906, Graphic: Chas. Jamison of Elliott has just finished painting R.W. Corbin Sr's fine residence west of town. Mr. Corbin has one of the finest homes in this part of the country and one of which he and his family are deserving and justly proud.

17 June 1909; Graphic; Grant: R.W. Corbin Sr. has purchased a fine new Auburn touring car...

When Rich's son Albert was married in 1920, Rich added two more rooms to the little schoolhouse, and he and Alice lived there until it burned in September 1931. Rich owned a small house in Grant, and they lived there until Alice's death. Then Rich made his home with Albert.

Heavin Beller, mother-in-law of John's daughter Maud; d January 1927, Willow Springs, MO; m (3) June 1928 Willow Springs, MO, Clara Brisley; d August 1949 Sedalia, MO. John was a member of the United Brethren Church.

After the death of John's father during the Civil War, he went with his family to Ohio, where they lived with his grandfather Deeds. The 1870 Census shows John living with his mother and her second husband, John Schnell. Family tradition says that John stayed with the Deeds family when Susana and her husband went to Missouri. John Wesley was only about 14 when Abram and Rich went to Missouri, but they took him with them.

John came to Iowa with his brothers in 1877, and in 1880 was a farm laborer in the Sidney Botts household. In 1881, John joined his brothers in the purchase of the farm on the Seven Mile River. After John and Ollie were married they lived in a small house on the ten-acre tract on the south side of the farm. In 1898 John moved a house onto land south of Grant and lived there at least until 1915.

23 March 1918; Villisca Review: Mrs. John Corbin and children left Tuesday for McAllen, Texas, where they will make their future home. Mr. Corbin left sometime before to make the trip in his automobile.

John moved to Corning, Arkansas about 1920. In 1922 he went to Willow Springs, Missouri. About 1928 he moved to Strafford, Missouri. John's Uncle Conaway Corbin left him a 25 acre farm; the Corbins lived there until Clara suffered a stroke in 1946. They sold the farm, and went to John's daughter, Grace, in Corning, Iowa. Clara was unhappy there, and insisted on going to relatives at Sedalia, Missouri. John went to Oregon, and stayed with his son Dean for about three years. He returned to Corning, Iowa, where he died.

28 May 1914; Grant Chief: Last week was a lucky week for Vest Patterson and Albert Corbin. Albert found a wolf’s den about a mile south of town, near the Gardner ranch, and informed Vest of the fact. The boys went over with spades and shotguns and after digging a while came upon a nest of seven cubs. They then waited for the mother wolf to appear and when she got within range they bagged her. The wolves were taken to the county seat and the boys were made richer by $48. The following day Vest went over to the den and succeeded in shooting the male wolf, which added another $20 to the amount received the previous day.

Albert attended school at Grant, and then transferred to Red Oak. He played football at Red Oak, and it is said that he was offered an athletic scholarship to Notre Dame. Albert farmed the home place, living there until he sold the farm in 1944.

During the depression years Albert did a lot of custom work to augment his income. He had a corn binder and a team of big mules, and day after day, would be in the fields from daylight until dark. Albert had a wood saw, but no tractor. A neighbor joined him, and they sawed wood for most of the community. Albert was also a fieldman for the federal farm program.

In 1943 Albert started work as a USDA meat inspector in Omaha. After the war, a returning service man claimed his job, and the Corbins lived at Grant and Tenville in Iowa. In 1948 Albert was recalled by the USDA and was sent to Dubuque, Iowa, where he lived until his retirement in 1966. In August '66 Albert and Ruth moved to Villisca, Iowa.
