Recently, in California, two Artlips met by chance. Neither could believe that the other was actually named Artlip, and the doubts were resolved only by a thorough inspection of the other's driver's license. This incident shows quite graphically that an Artlip is a rare bird indeed. And they seem to all be related. Only a few years ago, each branch of the family considered its members to be the only Artlips in existence, but now they are becoming aware of the wider family connections.

It has been about ten years since I began the search for Artlips. One of the first things I did was to check telephone directories for the name. And Lady Luck, or my guardian angel, lead me to the book for Baltimore, Maryland, and to Bonnie Hughes Artlip. She sent a copy of a record tracing my husband's family back to Christopher, the immigrant ancestor. Mrs. Artlip said, "My husband's father gave him a very worn, yellow, cheap tablet paper with the information I am sending to you. Now it is falling to pieces." Mrs. Artlip's sister-in-law, Ina Artlip Rose, wrote in 1970, "My father used to keep a diary, even before he was married, and it had the family record in it. But it is so old now and the writing is so faded that we can't read any of it." So it is well-established that Reuben Brace Artlip II was a serious, reliable record-keeper.

The data from the record sent by Bonnie Artlip has been correct for the items which I have been able to check, but it contains much that I haven't found any where else. And there is one problem. The record names Christopher, Junior, born in 1802. I haven't found even one other source giving that name, but there was a William Artlip, born 1802, who left a large family. There is no proof that Christopher, Jr. and William were the same person, but in 1855, Reuben Artlip's son, Asa B, was living in William's household. The record calls Asa a "cousin", but since it does definitely indicate a relationship, I have assumed that Christopher's second son was Christopher William, and have recorded him as such.

This family has been difficult to trace. They lived in New York, and that state was not a good record-keeper. And the Artlips were pioneers; they moved across New York with the early settlers. Accepted genealogical identification requires documentary proof of birth, marriage and death. If I recorded only those persons for whom these requirements have been met, there would be no account of the early generations, and nothing to tie together the various branches of the family. Federal Census records have been helpful, and the valuable material found in the New York State Census schedules compensates, to a certain degree, for the lack of other records. Some helpful cemetery records have been found. I have had to rely heavily upon family records, especially after 1900. All data for the older generations has been carefully evaluated and cross-checked whenever possible. Female lines have been given when readily available, but no special effort has been made to trace them, as each name would involve another complete research project.

There was a family named Ortlip living in Pennsylvania in the 1700's. I have not found any connection between them and Christopher's family, although the Artlips were sometimes listed as Ortlip. As with most early families, there were a number of variations in the spelling. A tradition of one branch of the family says the name was originally Ortliff.

I have included all the Artlips that I have been able to find. No doubt some have been missed, but the lines are complete enough that anyone should be able to find his place on the family tree without difficulty. I hope this record will be both interesting and helpful to future generations.

THE ARTLIP FAMILY

1. CHRISTOPHER ARTLIP; b 16 Mar, 1752, Germany; d. 15 Dec, 1832, probably Springwater Town, Allegany Co, NY; m Eva Ostrander; b 14 Jan, 1767, NY; d 25 Jan, 1835, probably Springwater.

The record sent by Bonnie Hughes Artlip says that Christopher was "a descendant of Jermey". It is not known when he came to this country. An interesting theory suggests that he may have been a mercenary who fought for the British during the Revolutionary War, and then refused to go home when the war was over. I checked all of the records I could find concerning those German soldiers, but the investigation was not completed.

Our ancestor is probably the "Christopher Outlip" who appeared in Hoosick Town, Albany County, New York, in the 1790 Census. Hoosick is just a few miles from Bennington, Vermont, where the biggest battle of the Revolution, in which mercenaries were used, took place.

The 1855 State Census of New York says John Artlip was born in Rensselaer County. Hoosick is in Rensselaer County now, but in 1790, when John was born, it was in Albany County.

The Artlips have not been found in the 1800 Census, but they may still have been in Rensselaer County. The 1865 New York State Census says that William was born in Albany County in 1802. By the time David was born in 1805, they were in Saratoga County.

Christopher may also have been known as John. In the 1810 Federal census of Saratoga County, two John Artlips appear on the same page. One is son John, but the other seems to be Christopher's family, although there are two extra males in the household. Also, Athella Thompson King, descendant of Betsy Artlip, says that her family records give Betsy's father as John.

At the time of the 1820 Federal census, son John was living in Phelps Town, Ontario County. Christopher may have been in that area, or he may have already been in Springwater Town, Livingston County, where he appeared in the 1830 Federal census; that is the last public record found for Christopher.

In the 1865 New York State Census, John and Mary were living with their son Leonard.

Allegany County, NY; Deeds; Liber 108; page 363: I, John Artlip of the town of Almond in the County of Allegany and State of New York, considering the uncertainty of human life and being of sound mind and memory blessed God for the Same, do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner following viz: I give and bequeath to my son Leonard B. Artlip twenty six acres of my farm (26) the west end of the same bounded on the west by the west line of said farm and running east far enough to make the said quantity of land. I give and bequeath to my daughter Jane Carnes Eleven acres of my farm it being and laying east of the piece given to Leonard, and bounded on the west by Leonards east line, and running east far enough to contain Eleven acres and no more (11). I give and bequeath to my Daughter Julia Pinchin the balance of my farm it being Twenty three acres and bounded on the west by James Carnes' east line, it being the east end of my farm.

I give and bequeath to my Grandson Chauncey Artlip on his arriving at the age (21) years, the sum of Forty dollars in money, the same to paid in proportion to the number of acres by Leonard B. Artlip and Jane Carnes and Julia Pinchin each, and I give and bequeath to my Granddaughter Olive Artlip the sum of Forty dollars in money on her arriving at the age of Twenty one years to paid in the same way as to Chauncey, and I give and bequeath to my Grandson Stephen Frasier the sum of Thirty dollars in money on his arriving at the age of twenty one years to be paid in the same manner as Chauncey and Olive Artlip.

And lastly, I hereby appoint Leonard B. Artlip of Almond my sole executor of this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal this the 20th day of January one thousand Eight Hundred and seventy.

4. CHRISTOPHER WILLIAM ARTLIP² (Christopher¹); b 2 Sept, 1802, Albany Co, NY; (1865 NY State Census) d possibly 1887; m Hannah Upthegrove; b ca 1802, Canada. Hannah's maiden name was given in the death record of her son Solomon. Census records of William's children indicate that he may have lived in Allegany County, New York, in the late 1820's and early 1830's.

1836; Monroe County, NY, Mortgage Book # 17; page 566: William Artlip of Penfield mortgaged his property to Ira Smith. (Note: no record of either purchase or sale of land has been found)

William appeared in Walworth Town, Wayne County, New York, in the 1840 and 1850 Census Schedules. He was in Penfield, Monroe County, in 1855 and 1860, and in Perinton Town, Monroe County, in 1865 and 1870.

Harvey bought land in Perinton Town in 1866 (Book 234; p 312) and sold land there in 1868 (221:8) and 1869 (230:34).

5. DAVID ARTLIP² (Christopher¹); b 27 Mar, 1805, Saratoga Co, NY; d after 1870, probably Birdsall Town, Allegany Co, NY; m Mary _____; b ca 1805, Canada; d probably between 1865 and 1870.

1838; Livingston, NY Republican: List of letters at the Sparta Post Office: David Artlip.

David moved to Allegany County about 1839. He appeared there in Birdsall Town census records from 1840 through 1870; that is as far as I have checked.

The Allegany County Grantee Deed Index shows that David bought land in Almond Town in 1853, and in Birdsall Town in 1853 and 1856.

(from death record) Lucinda was blind for many years before her death.

23 May, 1826; Livingston County, NY, Republican: Married in Sparta, on the 14th inst, by Martin L. Barber, Esq. Mr. Reuben Artlip to Miss Lucinda Mosier.

Reuben appears in several census schedules:

- 1830; Groveland Town, Livingston Co, NY
- 1840; Wayne Township, Crawford Co, PA
- 1850; Wayne Township, Crawford Co, PA. The Artlips were living in the home of Daniel Risinger, age 28, b NY, and wife Nancy, age 24; b NY.

From Atlas of Oceana County, Michigan; 1895; by Stanard; page 121; biography of Reuben B. Artlip, Jr . . . he was the son of Reuben and Lucinda Artlip, who were farmers near Cochranston, Pennsylvania. They moved to Chautauqua County, NY, in 1852, and from there to Marion, Ohio, in 1858; to Iona County, Michigan, in 1862, remaining there for two years. In August, 1864, they came to Oceana County, and settled on Section 33 of Greenwood Township...

- vi. Sarah Louise Reynolds; b 29 Sept, 1872, Murry, Salt Lake Co, Utah; d 26 Feb, 1941; m 18 Dec, 1896, John Cook.
- vii. Gladys Caroline Reynolds; b 14 Sept, 1874, Murry, Salt Lake Co, Utah; d 18 Jan, 1917; m 16 Oct, 1895, Thomas M. Hamilton.

8. EDWARD B. ARTLIP³ (John², Christopher¹); b ca 1811, NY; d probably between 1855 and 1860, DeKalb Co, Ill; m (1) _____; m (2) 11 Apr, 1849, DeKalb Co, Ill, Caroline Harshee; b ca 1806, Massachusetts; Caroline married 27 October, 1861, DeKalb Co, Ill, John D. Dow.

1837; Livingston County, NY Republican: List of letters at the Danville Post Office; Edward B. Artlip.

Edward settled in Pampas Township, DeKalb County, Illinois, sometime between 1845 and 1849. He appears there in the 1850 Federal Census and the 1855 Illinois state census.

Children of Edward B. Artlip:

- i. Mary Ann Artlip⁴; b ca 1833, NY; m 24 Jan, 1855, DeKalb Co, Ill, Henry Bradley.
- 26. ii. John Valentine Artlip; b ca 1837
- 27. iii. Edward Artlip II; b ca 1839
- iv. Charity Artlip; b ca 1842, NY; m 16 Oct, 1856, DeKalb Co, Ill, Henry Glassie.
- v. Orphena (Arthana?) Artlip; b ca 1845, NY; is she the Udilla Artlip who married 14 Dec, 1867, DeKalb Co, Ill, Hiram H. Marlett?
- vi. Homer Artlip; b 1850, Ill; d 6 June, 1882, Kansas; m 2 Jan, 1870, Desota Co, Kan, Mary E. Johnson. In 1864, Homer Artlip, of Cortland, Illinois, enlisted as a private in Company F, 132 Illinois Infantry. He served 100 days, then was injured in jumping a ditch, and was mustered out 17 Oct, 1864. On 23 January, 1865, he filed for an invalid's pension. He died of

A strangulated hernia. Pension file records state that Homer was five feet four inches in height.

9. WESLEY ARTLIP³ (John², Christopher¹); b ca 1826, NY; m Eliza _____. There is no proof that Wesley was a son of John. John reared two Artlip children who were born in Steuben County, New York, in 1850 and 1852. The following reading is the only possibility that has been found for the parents of those children. It isn't even certain that they were brother and sister; in 1855 Chauncey was living with John, but Olive wasn't.

1850 Federal census, Hornelsville, Steuben Co, NY:
Ortlip, Wesley; age 24; b NY
Ortlip, Eliza; age 20; b NY

Children of Wesley Artlip:

- i. Chauncey O. Artlip⁴; b 1850, Steuben Co, NY. Family records say that Chauncey never married, and that he lived with his sister.
- ii. Olive Artlip; b 1852, Steuben Co, NY; family records say that Chauncey lived with his sister, who married Abner Pinchion.

10. JANE ARTLIP³ (John², Christopher¹); m Henry Carnes.

Children of Jane Artlip Carnes:

- i. Charles Carnes
28. ii. Lester Carnes
- iii. Sarah Carnes
- iv. Morris Carnes

11. LEONARD B. ARTLIP³ (John², Christopher¹); b 22 Aug, 1831, (family records; death record says 2 Aug, 1830) Almond Town, Allegany Co, NY; d 6 June, 1912, Grawn, Grand Traverse Co, Mich; bu Grawn; m 29 Feb, 1856, Nt. Morris, Livingston Co, NY, Abigail Johnson; b 24 Jan, 1835, Dorien, Wyoming Co, NY; d 23 Oct, 1887, Green Lake Twp, Grand Traverse Co, Mch. (family records) Did Leonard m (2) a daughter of Emory L. Curtis?

Leonard appeared in census returns for Almond Town, Allegany County, New York, through 1865. In 1860 he was listed as Leonard Ortlip. In 1874 he lived in Hornelsville, Steuben County. Sometime in the late 1870's, he moved to Blair Township, Grand Traverse County, Michigan.

Children of Leonard B, Artlip:

- i. California E. Artlip⁴; b 5 Dec, 1857, NY; d 24 Jan, 1933.
32. ii. Cassius L. Artlip; b 20 June, 1862
- iii. Melvin Artlip; b 1 Apr, 1874, Hornelisville, Steuben Co, NY. On 8 July, 1920, in Blair Township, Grand Traverse County, Michigan, Cassius L. Artlip bought Lot 22 in Maple Grove Cemetery. Witnesses to the deed were Melvin Artlip and Mrs. Lottie Artlip.

12. PENINAH ARTLIP³ (John², Christopher¹); b ca 1835, Almond Town, Allegany Co, NY; m possibly a Frasier.

Child of Peninah Artlip Frasier:

- i. Stephen Frasier⁴; he was called a grandson in John Artlip's will but I am not certain that Peninah was his mother.

13. FOSTER ARTLIP³ (William², Christopher¹); b ca 1826; NY; d July, 1903; m Ida _____. (family records) In 1860, Foster lived with his parents in Penfield Town, Monroe County, New York. There is some evidence that Ida married second a Cotter, and had a daughter Mary, who died in St. Anne's Home, Rochester, in 1959.

Child of Foster Artlip:

- i. George Washington Artlip⁴; b ca 1854

1860; Monroe Co, NY; Deed Book 207; page 8: Solomon Artlip and Mary A. Artlip land in Perinton to Phebe Hulbert

8 Nov, 1860; Federal census of Penfield Town, Monroe Co, NY; Solomon and his son, Charles W. were living with his parents, William and Hannah.

21 Nov, 1860; Federal census of Perinton Town, Monroe Co: Solomon Artlip, age 27, blacksmith, was head of household, consisting of Mary Ann, age 21; Abram, age 22, butcher; Sarah Ann, age 20; Charles, age 6; Mary Jane age 18; and Harvey Newcomb, age 21. This seems to indicate that Solomon married Mary (Mate) Thompson between the two dates.

By 1870, Solomon lived at a crossroads called Liberty Pole, just outside Webster's Crossing. He had a blacksmith shop there.

1875 New York State census; Springwater Town, second election district; Livingston Co; page 29: Solomon Artlip; frame house valued at $800; - acre improved land; farm valued at $1,000; barns, etc, at $300; $40 worth of stock; 1 milch cow; 2 pigs slaughtered to 400 lbs. pork; $4 worth of poultry; sold $1 (or $5) worth of eggs; made 100 lbs. butter; had 15 trees.

Clipping from a scrap book: Sol Artlip lived on Liberty Pole Road, had a blacksmith shop for about 15 years before moving to Webster's Crossing...

From History of Town of Conesus, 1887; by Wm. P. Boyd; pages 138, 151: Solomon Artlip was town constable in 1886; lives at Webster's Crossing....

.... Solomon Artlip's wife, Charlotte Daniels, daughter of Garrett Daniels, who was born in 1808 and died February 10, 1876, and wife Lucinda Thorpe, born 1811 and died February 13, 1876....

Lucille Artlip Kuch writes, "I was born just two houses from my Grandmother Artlip and Aunt Nellie, who lived together even after Aunt Nellie was married. I recall many happy times spent at their house. Just thinking of the cookies and home made bread still makes my mouth water."

The 1860 census shows Walcott M. Artlip living with his parents in Penfield Town, Monroe County. In 1870, Mavor lived in Springwater Town, Livingston County; he was listed as selling dry-goods. The 1900 census shows Mayor in Perinton Town, Monroe County.

Emily Sweet is probably the subject of a story related by Mayor's great-grandson, Daniel Leon Artlip:

About 1937, I went with my Dad and Grand-dad to visit Grand-dad's brother Andrew. A very old lady who was bedfast, lived with Uncle Andy. I was told that when in her 80's, she had eloped with a man who was in his 90's. In her dresser drawer were two items I remember to this day. She had part of a pint of whiskey and a newspaper with large black headlines announcing the assassin ation of Abraham Lincoln.

19. JOHN M. ARTLIP³ (David², Christopher¹); b 21 Jan, 1833, Springwater, Livingston Co, NY; d 9 June, 1916, Pemiscot Co, Missouri; m 27 Sept, 1857, Allen, Allegany Co, NY, (by J. G. Wilson, JP) Catherine S. O'Connor; b ca 1842, Ireland. In the 1860 census, John is shown next door to his father, David. All other information concerning John is taken from the pension files in the National Archives.

John M. Artlip, age 31, enlisted at Avon, New York, 13 September, 1864, for one year. He was mustered in as a Private in Company D, 188 Infantry. He was mustered out with his Company 1 July, 1865, near Washington, DC.

On 1 October, 1890, John filed for an invalid's pension. One of his neighbors stated that John suffered from "cronic direer". Sometime later his application was approved (No. 697119). His pension file reveals a rather bizarre series of records (File No. WC 834232).

9 Dec, 1890: Catherine S. Artlip, age 47 ... residing at St. Joseph, Buchanan County, Missouri ... declares she is the widow of John M. Artlip ... who was enrolled as a Private in Captain William H. Drehmer's Company ... and that the last she ever heard from him was at Willow Springs, Howell County, Missouri, in about 1881, that since then she has been wholly dependent upon her own exertions, and believes that he died about the date last mentioned ...

21 May, 1912: John had to reapply for his pension, under a new law. In this declaration he stated that since leaving the service he had resided in St. Joseph County, Michigan; Ripley County, Missouri, and Pemiscot County, Missouri.

14 Oct, 1915: Catherine S. Artlip applied for one half of John's pension.

State of Missouri; County of Linn: On this 29th day of November 1915 before me personally appeared Alsina Arabella Artlip Lomas who on her oath says that her Post Office and residence is La Clede Missouri that she is a daughter of the soldier John N. Artlip and his wife Catherine S. Artlip that affiant lived at her fathers home in La Clede Mo; until she was married on the 1st day of September 1880 since which date she has lived and resided in La Clede at her own home and in relation to the above claim affiant says that sometime in the month of May 1880 her mother Catherine S. Artlip left the bed of her husband the soldier John M. Artlip and thereafter refused to live with him as his wife and affiant further says that from her best knowledge information and belief Catherine S. Artlip had not been faithful to her Marriage vows for more than two years prior to the month of May 1880.

Affiant further says that on or about September 20th, 1880 John M. Artlip left the family on account of the misconduct of his wife and has not since lived with her that from the time his wife refused to occupy his bed as here in stated they have not lived together and the said John M. Artlip was a good man faithful to his marriage vows and a kind husband and father and further affiant saith not.

Alsina Arabella Artlip Lomas

O. F. Libby, Notary Public

1 April, 1916: I am the brother of Alsina Arabella Artlip Lomax who has made affidavit against our good mother, the claimant, in reply to which I now testify that the insinuations is not true by her statement that sometime in the month of May 1880 her mother left the bed of her husband and thereafter refused to live with him as his wife. On the contrary she knows that she was a devoted wife- that she, the claimant, cared for him in sickness and treated him and the children with undivided affection and she further knows that it is not true that from her best knowledge information or belief that Catherine S. Artlip had not been faithful to her marriage vow for more than two years prior to the month of May or any other time. And her said statement and in sinuation is excusable only on the ground of insanity that cropped out in the lines of her paternal ancestry and which has acquired notoriety for desertion of wives and children. Affiant denies that on or about September 20, 1880, John M. Artlip left the family on account of the misconduct of his wife then or ever any other time and she states that his wife, the claimant, was faithful and true to her plight of faith and to her children at all times and uniformly so in contrast with her assailants reputation in the City of Laclede affiant states that he always lived with his parents in Laclede while there- that Soldier deserted his wife and five children without any reasonable or just cause- that claimant raised her children in the Christian faith until three of them passed under her devout care and guidance to the better world. My mother and I have stayed with each other. To her, I owe my character as a business man, as a citizen, as an official of the Presbyterian Church and as a man wellknown in the City of St. Joseph, Missouri.

Charles T. Artlip
(age 53)

10 Oct, 1916: Catherine S. Artlip, age 74, applied for a widow's pension. In the declaration she stated that she had lived at Atchison, Kansas, from 1900 until 1906. I didn't learn if she received the pension.

22. DAVID ARTLIP³ (Reuben², Christopher¹); b 3 July, 1830, NY; d 21 July, 1899, North Platte, Lincoln Co, Neb; m (1) 20 Mar, 1851, Crawford Co, PA (pension records) Barbara Cussins; b July, 1830, PA; d 20 Oct, 1890, Somerset, Neb; dau of Thomas Jefferson Cussins and Elizabeth Wheein; m (2) 4 Mar, 1891, Martha Elizabeth Booth Searight.

David has not been located in the 1850 census. About 1855, David and Barbara, with her parents, moved to Illinois. The Artlip family settled near Utah, Coldbrook Township, in Warren County; they appear there in the 1860 Federal census.

On 9 August, 1862, David enlisted at Coldbrook, as a private in Company B, 102 Regiment, Illinois Infantry Volunteers. Service records indicate that in January and February, 1863, David was in Convalescent Regiment No. 1, Bowling Green, Kentucky. Prisoner of War records show that he was captured at Black River, North Carolina, in March, 1865, and paroled on 26 March, at Boulware's and Cox's Wharf, Virginia. He was reported at Camp Parole, Maryland, and on 29 March, 1865, was sent to Benton Barracks, Missouri. He was discharged 25 May, 1865, at Springfield, Illinois. Service records give his description as five feet seven inches; dark complexion; brown hair and black eyes.

While David was in the service, Barbara had moved, with her parents, to Nodaway County, Missouri. David joined his family there, and on 22 January, 1866, bought 80 acres in Page County, Iowa. (Book J; page 82; W½ NE¼ Sec 22, T67, R36; $225) In 1880, he bought 40 adjoining acres (Book 37; page 219). Their Post Office was Morsman.

The Artlips attended a small country church called Shearer. The men of the congregation took turns preaching, and it was said that David was the "prayingest" one of all.

On 1 July, 1882, David applied for a service disability pension. He stated that in February, 1863, at Gallatin, Tennessee, he contracted measles, caught cold, and had suffered from a bad cough and neuralgia since then.

David and Barbara sold their land to George Farrens, Jr, on 30 December, 1889. They went to DeWitt, Nebraska, where their son Mark and their daughter Ann Wolf lived. After a visit there, they went on to Lincoln County, Nebraska, where Barbara's brother Samuel Cussins lived. David and Mark took homesteads near Somerset, which consisted of a small store and post office. Barbara had been in poor health for some time, and she died at Somerset in October, 1890.

In 1891, David again applied for a pension, stating that he was unable to work, due to lung disease, and that he was also deaf in both ears. His post office was then Frontier, Nebraska. The pension was allowed.

David received a Patent from the U. S. government dated 27 April, 1895. (Book 2; page 241; Lincoln Co, Neb; NE¼ Sec. 28; T 11; R 31; 173.23 acres) On 19 May, 1899, the land was sold to Abraham Dunkle.

David's grave site is not known. A granddaughter said that he was buried at the National Cemetery, but officials at Ft. McPherson Cemetery, at Maxwell, Nebraska, say he is not there.

After David's death, his second wife applied for a widow's pension but the claim was rejected. The widow moved to Washington state.

On 15 July, 1896, the family of John V. Artlip received a Citation:

To Whom it may Concern: Know ye that Sgt. John V. Artlip enlisted in the U. S. Service at Courtland Sta. DeKalb County, Illinois, November 1, 1861 as a private of Company G, 58th Regiment Illinois Volunteers Infantry under Capt. Jas. A. Bernley and Col. Wm. F. Lynch to serve three years or during the war. The Regiment was assigned to the 3rd Brigade, Division 16 and 17 Corps; Army of Tennessee. Said John V. Artlip participated in the following engagements: Fort Donelson, Tennessee, February 14 and 16, 1862; Shiloh or Pittsburg Landing, Tennessee, April 6 and 7, 1862. He was honorably discharged July 5, 1862 on account of disability. Re-enlisted December 19, 1863 and was mustered in as a Sargeant of Company M, 12th Regiment, Illinois Volunteer Cavalry under Capt. Oliver Grasvenor and Col. Hasbrouck Davis to serve three years or during the war. Took part in the Red River Expedition March 7 to 15, 1864. He was injured in the back by the falling limb of a tree which had been cut off by a shot during the battle, from which injuries he never fully recovered. Honorably discharged on account of disability September 1, 1864, at Napoleonville, Louisiana.

John's gravesite has been lost, but there is a marker in his honor in the Civil War Memorial plot in the old Beloit, Wisconsin, Cemetery.

Capt I beg leave to inform you that in the month of June last, I understood that Edward Artlip frequented the house of Horace Root, who lives 1½ miles west of DeKalb in DeKalb Co, Ill. I called on Mr. Root, and informed him that Artlep had deserted from the 58th Reg. Ills. Vol, that if he called again, he must arrest him or (at least) inform me so that I could take him, which he has failed to do. Artlep has called at his house frequently has once traded houses with Root. Artlep's Sister has been Staying with Root. One week ago last Sunday night (the time I was at your place) Artlip called at Root's House and arranged with him to meet Artlip between DeKaib and Cortland with Artlip's sister at some given time on Last Sunday night. By some mistake they failed to meet. Root returned home with the Girl about 3 oclock in the morning. Artlep finally went to Root's House. took the Girl and went (as I suppose) to Wisconsin.

The above statement I believe to be susceptible of proof together with other facts not stated.

All of which is Respectfully Submitted

Your Obedient Servant

Daniel Leon Artlip writes: My Dad, his brother Leon, and their mother, Rose, and father, Seymour, lived on a barge, pulled by horses or mules, on the Erie Canal. The men and boys drove the animals along the towpath, walking and riding, from Buffalo to New York City. At the locks they would float a coin in an apple to the lock tender as a sort of bribe or reward for easing the water in and out of the lock to prevent rough passage and damage. Leon died of typhoid fever in 1909, of bad water, and Grandma Artlip made Grandpa give up life on the canal. For the rest of her life Grandma kept a picture of Leon in his casket hanging where we could see it. I remember it vividly.

Reuben and Belle are buried in Lowman Cemetery, Pleasant Township, Cass County, Iowa.

At the age of 19, Reuben left his home in Page County and worked as a farm hand in the northeast corner of Montgomery County. When he was 20, Reuben bought a Hamilton watch, which is still in the family.

In 1885, Reuben and Belle lived in the southeast corner of Section 2, Pilot Grove Township. In 1893, they lived at the north edge of Pilot Grove Township, just east of the Lowman church. The next spring, they rented the farm across the road, in Pleasant Township, Cass County.

On 25 October, 1901, Reuben bought a farm south of Grant from George S. Dotson (W¹/₂- NW¹/₄, Sect 22, T73, R36). While living there, they attended the Baptist Church at Grant.

13 Nov, 1903; Elliott Graphic: R. B. Artlip of Grant traded his 80 acre farm to Cal Plummer for his 60 acres north of town.

20 Nov, 1903; Graphic: R. B. Artlip purchased 60 acres joining the Plummer farm ...

7 Jan, 1904; Graphic: While R. B. Artlip was helping load a stalk cutter into the wagon at Sam Jones' sale Tuesday the knives turned, striking Mr. Artlip across the face and cutting a severe, though not dangerous, gash. He was brought to town where a physician sewed up the wound.

4 Apr, 1907; Graphic: W. L. Langley has just completed remodeling Rhuben Artlip's house north of town. Mr. Artlip now has a very neat two-story residence.

5 Dec, 1907; Graphic. ... (Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Artlip) will accompany Mr. Artlip's parents to Colorado where they will make their future home.

4 June, 1908; Graphic: Ruben Artlip and family returned Monday from several months' stay in Colorado. (Note: Loveland) They were not pleased with the country, and have moved back. They will live in the N. S. Ling property, west end of Main street.

14 Jan, 1909; Graphic: Deacons of Elliott Church of Christ: R. B. Artlip.

25 Feb, 1909; Graphic: R. B. Artlip departed Wednesday morning for Waterloo to buy fixtures for his new meat market which he will open up in this city March first in the Charles Knapp building. The building is now being repapered and painted preparatory to his moving in. Mr. Artlip is an old resident of this county, and is well and favorably known by a majority of the people within trading distance of Elliott and no doubt he will receive his share of the business in his line.

11 Mar, 1909; Graphic: ... the new butcher shop ... Mr. Artlip made a mistake, and when the new cooler for the shop arrived, it was a foot or more too high for the room, and a hole had to be cut in the floor to let it down.

-- Ad for Palace Meat Market

25 Mar, 1909; Graphic: R. B. Artlip is building a new slaughter house and yard on the Ling property west of town, where he now lives. The slaughter house will be to the far southwest corner of the place, which comprises 13 acres.

8 Apr, 1909; Graphic: R. B. Artlip and wife went to Omaha Tuesday to consult a specialist in regard to Mrs. Artlip's health. Upon her arrival there it was discovered that an operation would be necessary at once. Dr. L. A. Baldwin of this place, and the lady's sister, Mrs. J. F. Roberts were called. The operation occurred Wednesday at 8:30 AM and the patient is reported as recovering nicely.

15 Apr, 1909; Graphic: IOOF members: R. B. Artlip

6 May, 1909; Graphic: D. W. Brick buys one-half interest in the Palace Meat Market.

27 May, 1909; Graphic: R. B. Artlip sold his 120 acres of bottom land, north of town three miles, to H. L. Johnson, for $12,000. Mr. Artlip has owned the farm for several years, and the investment has made him a nice profit.

-- The new grocery store of Artlip and Brick is carrying a nice clean stock of fancy groceries and canned goods, full cream cheese and cured meats.

10 June, 1909; Graphic: Ad - The Palace Meat Market wants your orders for fresh and cured meats ... The agreement entered into between the two shops has been dissolved. Motto: "Live and Let Live."

23 Sept, 1909; Graphic: R. B. Artlip has purchased the George Kryselmeyer property on West Main Street, and will get possession November 1. It will be just a year since Mr. K. began the erection of this house. It is a nice home and a splendid location.

16 Dec, 1909; Graphic: A deal was made last week whereby R. B. Artlip buys out his partner, D. W. Brick's interest in the Palace Meat Market. Mr. Artlip will continue business at the old stand ... will be assisted by his sons.

14 Jan, 1910; Warranty Deed; Pottawattamie County: Frederick W. Mewhirter and wife Hattie L. to Reuben B. Artlip, for \$5070, 3 parcels in SW $\frac{1}{4}$ Sect. 25, T74, R38, containing 60 acres more or less.

3 Feb, 1910; Graphic: C. E. Carson took possession of the Artlip Meat Market last Monday AM ... He disposed of the grocery line and will handle nothing but meat. His brother, R. E. Carson is coming to assist with the running of the market.

4 Aug, 1920; Warranty Deed; Pottawattamie Co; Reuben Artlip and wife Belle to A. A. Harding, two parcels in SW $\frac{1}{4}$ Sect 25, T74, R38, containing twenty acres more or less.

In 1920, Reuben and Delbert each drove a truck to Burlington, Colorado, and hauled grain during the harvest season. The next year Reuben sold his farm and moved to Bethune, Colorado. He trucked during the harvest and did carpenter work at other times. After two years, the farm was returned to him, and he moved back onto it. Reuben and Belle celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary there in 1934.

15 Oct, 1934; Warranty Deed; Pottawattamie Co: Guy W. Siefford and wife
Vesta to Reuben Artlip, 20 acres more or less, in SE¼ Sect. 25, T74, R38.

This transaction was in the nature of a trade. Reuben and Belle moved onto the smaller place just east of where they had been living. About 1937 or 1938, Reuben was injured while splitting logs, and never fully recovered. In 1943, they bought a house in Elliott, and moved into town.

After Reuben's death, Belle traded her home for a house next door to her son Delbert, where she lived alone until she broke a hip. After she was released from the hospital she made her home with her daughter, Blanche.

Chancey, as he was called, was a character. He was married a number of times. He was a wanderer, never staying long in one place. He sang and yodelled. In his younger days, he frequently entertained at public functions.

Chancey was a gifted artist, but at one time made his living by painting houses and barns. There are at least four large charcoal portraits of family members which were drawn by Chancey.

From obituary: ... He served in the regular army dui'ing the Spanish-American War, and when World War I began he enlisted and was taken to England where he became ill and was taken back to the states, where he was given an honorable discharge ...

After his discharge, Chancey worked in a shipyard at Mobile, Alabama. He left his last wife and infant son in Mobile, and went to the home of his sister, Ann Wolf, in Kansas, where he died.

The old-timers around Braddyville, Iowa, told many stories about Chancey. Here is one:

Chancey claimed to be a spiritualist, and said he could talk to ghosts. One time a demonstration was arranged to take place in a deserted house on a certain night. The house contained a fireplace, and at the appointed time, a number of men gathered around the hearth. In the meantime, some boys, hearing of the plans, had climbed to the roof of the house, and during the proceedings, dropped a goose down the chimney. Upon landing, the goose squawked and took off, and so did everyone present. Chancey had the shortest legs of any one there, but he outran them all.

- 2 May, 1918; Grant Chief: Chas. Ruhl has severed his connections with the Collins people, and Delbert Artlip of Elliott will take over the Grant business of the firm. (Note: this was an oil company. Delbert drove a tank truck.)

In the summer of 1920, Delbert and his father, with their families, each drove a truck to Burlington, Colorado, and hauled grain during the harvest season. In 1921, they went to Bethune, Colorado. Reuben stayed there that fall, and Delbert returned to Elliott. In 1922, he again went to Bethune.

In 1923, Delbert attended barber school in Omaha, then barbered in Grant for three years. He moved to Elliott then, and opened a shop there. In the back of the building, he repaired shoes, and in slack times helped out in the produce station across the street.

During this time, Delbert started handling used metals and auto parts; eventually, it became a full time business. During World War II, it brought prosperity to Delbert. In 1958, he sold the business to his son Bob.

When Reuben retired, Delbert bought his little farm, and added another twenty acres. He farmed it himself as long as he was able, then his son Bob took over.

Late in 1936, Delbert and Doris bought a house one block north of Main street in Elliott. Doris still lives there.

Daniel was a stationary engineer for du Pont. He is now retired and lives in Shallotte, North Carolina. During World War II, Dan served in the Merchant Marines. Dan writes vividly of the family members and the times in which they lived:

Dad told me we had a relative who hid in a leather barrel (an oak hogshead in which leather was shipped) to escape the draft officer in the Civil War.

Cora Artlip Biehler was always Aunt Corey. Her husband must have been "Old Joe". He made the Rochester papers some years ago. It gave his life story; he was close to being a frontiersman. The Biehlers lived in Fairport.

Springwater is a beautiful village set in rolling Drumlins amid pines , near a pure lake.

About the Spiehiers- During the late '20's, Charley Spiehler was a fine looking man, about six feet, always well dressed. Charley was a rarity in the late '20's, a college graduate. He was purchasing agent for the Delco Manufacturing Company in Rochester. Hazel was a thin, very intelligent, well-spoken lady. Lucille was a very pretty girl, badly spoiled. We played in her basement or upstairs while the adults partied on the main floor. My Dad made home brew, and the "perks" of a purchasing agent brought Charley hams turkeys, candy and liquor. For a country under prohibition, there seemed to be plenty of booze around. The Spiehlers lived in an expensive house in the Laurelton section, the kind of neighborhood where people outdid each other decorating at Christmas time. My Dad had a Willys-Knight touring car, and we would drive past the houses and admire the decorations. This was a time of prosperity for our family: new Ford, purchase of a home. My parents ran a summer concession in a resort area. This continued till the mid 30's ...
